Minimum age 16; sponsored by the NC Maritime Museum in Beaufort.

Mountains to the Coast Bike Ride. September 26-October 3. The Pine Knoll Shores cycling team of John and Sylvia Brodman, Mike and Buffa Hargett and Jan Frye will again ride about 500 miles across North Carolina, raising money this year for the local Crystal Coast Hospice House. Tax deductible donations may be made payable to the town of Pine Knoll Shores and dropped off at town hall or mailed to 100 Municipal Circle, Pine Knoll Shores, NC 28512. Please make a notation of "bike ride" or "hospice house" on your check. The group pays its own expenses, so 100% of donations will go directly to the hospice house. See "What's Up With PARC?" in this issue of The Shoreline.

NC Seafood Festival. October 2-4 on the Morehead City Waterfront. This is the largest festival in Eastern NC and offers free local and regional entertainment, 8k road race, fishing contests, children's playground, vendors of all kinds, fireworks, amusement rides and lots of seafood. See "Seafood Festival Kicks Off National Seafood Month" in this issue of The Shoreline. Information is also available by calling 726-6273 or visiting ncseafoodfestival.org.

MUMFEST. October 10-11 in the heart of New Bern's historic downtown. Two days of family fun, including acrobats, dance troupes, magicians, roving street performers, amusement park rides, a model train exhibition, the Purina Incredible Dog Team, Art in the Park at Union Point Park and more. Visit mumfest.com for more information.
