

Pine Knoll Shores Exhibit at Carteret County History Museum

"Beach Town in a Forest: The Story of Pine Knoll Shores" opened in the new Rodney Kemp Gallery at the Carteret County History Museum in March. Mayor Ken Jones accepted an award on behalf of the town of Pine Knoll Shores, the Board of Commissioners and the History Committee for being the first to exhibit in the new gallery. Information panels and artifacts carry visitors through the history of the town. The exhibit is open to the public and will be on display through March 2017.—Photos by Bill Flexman

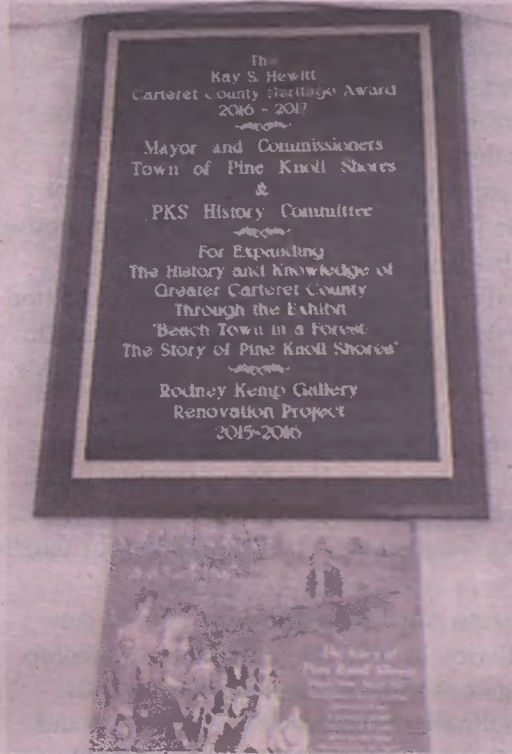

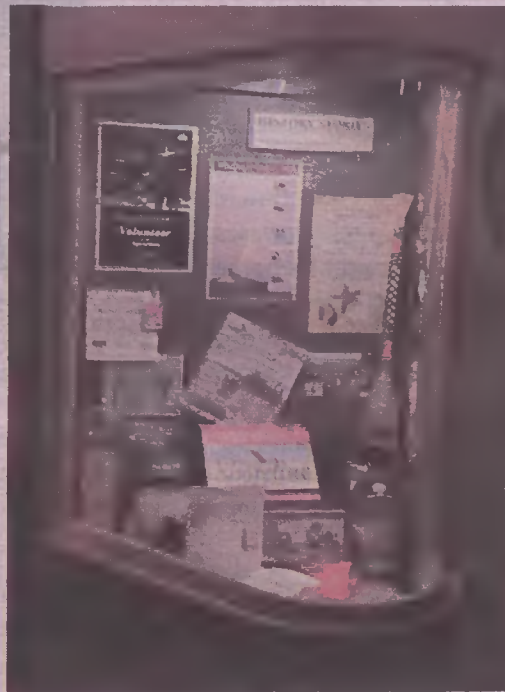

Photo by Phyllis Makuck

Photo by John Macheca

Pine Knoll Shores Police Officer Matthew Drake (right) was awarded a plaque in recognition of his selection as Police Officer of the Year at the March 9 Board of Commissioners meeting. He is pictured here with Police Chief Ryan Thompson. Congratulations and appreciation for his service are extended to Officer Drake.—Photo by Paige Gillespie

Fire in the sky. This shot was taken recently on the beach in Pine Knoll Shores just after sunset.—Photo by Ron Johnson