PKS Promotes Two of Its Best

Sarah joined the Pine Knoll Shores staff in September 2012, soon after graduating from UNC—Wilmington with a Master of Public Administration in Environmental Policy and Management. She received her undergraduate degree from East Carolina University. Sarah was hired as the town's assistant town clerk, and has worked in almost every administrative functional area in town hall. She clerks for the Planning Board, clerked for three years for the Parks and Recreation Committee, processed water utility bills up to the recent change in water billing, handles building inspection permit administration, is a Division of Coastal Management local permit officer, and has backed up the clerk on everything from notary public services to filling in at commissioner meetings. Sarah is a board member of the NC Coastal Federation, and has been the town's lead agent in environmental initiatives such as the movement of recycling to Mondays to increase recycling tonnage and the sale of recycling carts at town hall.

I believe the town is fortunate to have these two staff members, and we are promoting them to fill roles for which the town needs skilled and motivated employees—traits possessed by Scott and Sarah. We have made this change without adding any personnel: Assistant Town Manager Julie Anderson has made secondary job assignments so that the everyday tasks of working at town hall will be covered.

Annual Summer Party at the Beaufort Historic Site

The Beaufort Historic Site is the place to be on Saturday, July 9, 7-11 p.m., for the Beaufort Historical Association's annual Summer Party. Started as a celebration of Beaufort's 300th anniversary in 2009, it has quickly become a tradition and a great way to celebrate the seafaring community of Beaufort. Everyone is invited to join the party for great food, a full bar and live music.

Beaufort Grocery Company will provide the food with a menu inspired by the sea, while a full bar is available as well as a special signature drink to welcome guests. The Summer Party will also feature live music by the Raleigh band Punch. The eight-piece band plays everything from '70s funk and Motown to today's Top 40 pop hits.

Complementing the food, drinks and music will be both live and silent auctions. This year's auction will be hosted online; start bidding early online at beauforthistoricsite.org. Over 100 items will be featured, including tickets to the Broadway show "Hamilton," a sport fishing trip on a 55-foot Jarrett Bay and a vacation rental of a Front Street home. Bids can be placed through the Beaufort Historic Site's website prior to the event, and electronic bidding will be available at the event via personal cell phone or on a bidding device provided at the site.

Tickets are $100 and may be purchased either in advance or the day of the event at the Beaufort Historic Site Welcome Center at 130 Turner Street in Beaufort or online at beauforthistoricsite.org. All proceeds from ticket sales and auction items benefit the preservation, restoration and education programs of the Beaufort Historic Site.

Summer History Day Camp at the Beaufort Historic Site

Registration is now open for the Beaufort Historical Association's Summer History Day Camp. Students will participate in colonial activities to learn about life in early America. Two sessions will be offered for children ages 8-11: July 19-21 and July 26-28, 9 a.m.-12 p.m. each day.

Participants will meet each day at the Beaufort Historical Association's Welcome Center, located at 130 Turner Street. Reservations for this program are required with a materials fee of $40 due at the time of reservation. A limited number of scholarships are available.

Living History Series

Musical Instruments of the Past. Marsha Harris will conduct a workshop discussing musical instruments of the past on Saturday, July 16, at 10 a.m. in the Beaufort Site's Welcome Center at 130 Turner Street. Seating is limited; call for a reservation.

Sea Salt Demonstration. Caryn Wooldridge will host a sea salt demonstration on Saturday, July 23, 1-3 p.m., in the Beaufort Site's Welcome Center at 130 Turner Street. Seating is limited; call for a reservation.

For more information on the events listed here and other Beaufort Historical Association events, stop by the Historic Site, call 728-5225, or visit beauforthistoricsite.org.
