

ed in "July 1996-May 1999 Oceanfront er pages in the June issue of The having been taken in September is true that the sittum pilings were nder the sittum in this manner in Bill Keefe (left) and Bob Murphy ricane Bonnie when sand was again under the steps and the sittum in 1996.—Photo by Tom Tempel

Pine Knoll Shores residents Jean and Chuck McDanal at the Mendenhall Glacier in Juneau, Alaska, on a recent visit. The 13.6-mile glacier is in the federally protected Tongass National Forest. —Photo courtesy of the McDanals

Pine Knoll Shores resident Tony Battista recently made the most of a beautiful sunny day by slipping away for a little relaxation on the sound. —Photo by Mary Battista

Bonnie and Michael Ferneau recently enjoyed a 15-day cruise on the Baltic Sea. Behind them is Lysefjord in Stavanger, Norway.—Photo courtesy of the Ferneaus

PHOTOS
day of school in the olution pictures to and include children's information you'd like do we.—The Editors

