PKS Garden Club to Honor Our Military

It is with great honor that the Pine Knoll Shores Garden Club announces the dedication of Highway 58 to our military forces.

The Blue Star Memorial Highway marker will be dedicated at 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, November 9, at the corner Highway 58 and Pine Knoll Boulevard.

The dedication of highways to honor veterans began after WWII, with a New Jersey garden club creating the first such memorial. Since then the program has grown nationwide, and now the Garden Club of Pine Knoll Shores will be dedicating Highway 58 in Pine Knoll Shores to our armed forces.

The Garden Club will host a wine and cheese fundraiser in October. Watch for more details.
