

ON THE JOB FOR UNCLE SAM

lished. That did me a lot of good and I'm certain the same is true of any of the fellows away from home.

Keep me on the mailing list and I'll always consider you a close friend; if you don't you'll become just one of my best of enemies.

If any of you "guys" get a chance to see this, write if you will. Do you hear me talking, "Slim" Samuels?

Thanks very much Marshall Field and Dummy Newman; it's good to have had the privilege of knowing each of you.

Respectfully and admiringly yours,
WILLIAM C. FAYNE (Bill)

1st Lieut., Med. Adm. Corps.
Ft. Geo. Wright, Wash.

Dear Dummy:

I have received several copies of The Mill Whistle and enjoyed them very much. This paper is really swell for the fellows in the service. I'm sure that all the men formerly connected with Marshall Field appreciate the work you are doing in making this paper possible.

My address has been changed several times in the past few months and I would appreciate your changing my address on your mailing list in order that I may receive the paper a little earlier.

We are starting a new division out here and as yet we have received very few men to fill out the division. I'm hoping that we will receive some N. C. boys in the future, for there are only a few men out here from N. C.

The other day I dropped into a store in Corwallis to buy some sheets. Looking around, I noticed a number of blankets on a counter. On closer examination, I discovered that most of them were manufactured by Marshall Field & Co. I fooled around with the blankets a little bit and started getting homesick, so I had to get out before the salesman sold me one.

Thanks again for the paper, and I'm looking forward to receiving the next issue of The Mill Whistle.

LT. D. C. WILLIAMS,

Co. F, 383rd Infantry,
Camp Adair, Oregon.

Danville General Hospital,
Danville, Ky.

J. U. Newman, Jr., Editor,

I am now in this hospital waiting for an honorable discharge. Have fourteen months service. Also I have obeyed military laws, and the commissioned officers have treated me swell. Have made some very good friends. They haven't let me down, either. Also I have friends in all of the Marshall Field mills. Just mention my name and address as a special favor.

EDWARD R. JOHNSTON.

GENERAL OFFICE

was taken by complete surprise and that the attack was made without the loss of a single life. The enemy is already on the way to a concentration camp, to be interned for the duration of this war—after that—oh well, we will wait and see what happens. Neal Boring led the attack and due to the cool, quiet and brave manner in which he conducted himself, we are sure that he will be awarded the highest decoration for bravery. Neal rushed right into the enemy camp, grabbed Miss Johnsie Fagg, rushed her to South Carolina and they were married Sunday, October 4, 1942, leaving all their friends gapping and sighing. No kidding! Johnsie and Neal all your friends are wishing for you all the happiness in the world.

Miss Rachel Cowan is casting her lot with the Accounts Payable Department. She will replace Louise Beach who has resigned to take a position in Norfolk, Va.

Messrs. Brown, Norman and Barksdale were in New York over the weekend on business for the Company. We hope they enjoyed the ball game.

Your correspondent understands that the girls in the Sales Audit Department are gripping because they haven't made the news—all that we can say is "Get active girls, do something, we will publish it."

J. E. Perry, popular and genial overseer of the Weave Department, has lost neither his ever ready smile nor his jovial disposition, even though we seem to have plenty of trouble keeping sufficient help. With boys leaving almost daily for the army and others going into war work it is a pretty big job to keep the looms going. But Mr. Perry is doing it, and keeping his even disposition at the same time. If everyone would just work every day it would help matters a lot. Soldiers and sailors don't go to the sick bay just because they have a little headache or a small scratch on their hands.

Miss Hazel Cochran had as her weekend guest, Miss Edna McDowell, of Danville.

Barney Carter, Jesse Manuel, Ernest Hopkins, James Wilson, Johnny Ayers and Barney Martin left Monday. All enter the Army. Good luck, boys.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Carter had as dinner guests, Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Stultz and daughter, Marie, and Mr. and Mrs. Barney Carter.

Otis Chilton, of the Navy, spent last weekend at home.

Elmer Hawks, of the Army, visited Mr. and Mrs. Schillings for a few days last week.

Sam Holly, one of the first Draper boys to enter the Navy, has been discharged from St. Elizabeth hospital, Washington, D. C., where he has been a patient for several weeks. He is spending a few days with his family here.

J. R. McGavish and J. D. Young are on the sick list this week. Hurry and get well, boys, we can't afford to shut down any of our looms while this war is going on.

Mrs. Lola Stultz spent last week in Schoolfield with her brother, who is ill.

Stafford Gillie is an operative patient at Leaksville hospital. We all wish him a speedy recovery.

L. J. Baker, foreman of Wool Carding, has moved to the home on Fieldcrest road, formerly occupied by J. C. Page.

A. J. Combs, Wool Carding, has returned to work after an illness of several days.

Parson Harris, second hand in Wool Carding, suffered a slight attack of appendicitis last week, but is better at present.

Corporal Fred R. Martin, of Camp Wheeler, Ga., visited relatives and friends here the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Merriman and little daughter, Brenda, spent the past week with the former's sister, Mrs. H. A. Webb, at her home on the Madison road.

Private Berean Tolbert and friend, Ed Neetche, of Fort Bragg, spent the weekend with Berean's mother, Mrs. Stella Tolbert.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baughn of Mayodan were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Richardson, on Jefferson street.

Joseph Shropshire, of the Air Corps, who is stationed at Fort Benning, Ga., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Shropshire, the past weekend.

Rev. and Mrs. Tim Bryan, of Reidsville, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tulloch.

Tom Meeks, of Durham, spent the weekend with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Litaker, of Baltimore, Md., are visiting friends and relatives here this week.

Mural McCulloch has resigned his position as weaver and joined the navy. He wrote his wife that it snowed where he was last Friday.

Philip Welburn and Curtis Land, both of the weave room, joined the navy last week.

Henry P. Adams and Lance Martin are leaving next week for the army.

Flora Winn, Troy Smith and Jesse Watkins, all of the weave room, are on the sick list.

Howard Hopper, who recently joined the navy air corps, is now stationed at Pensacola, Florida.
