

Retiring Employees

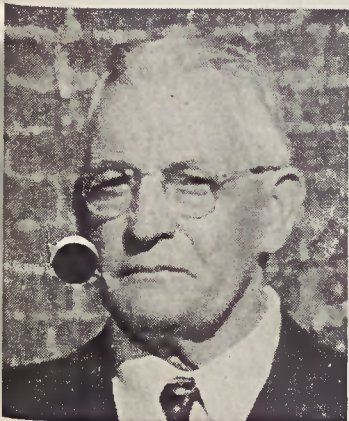

William M. McCormack

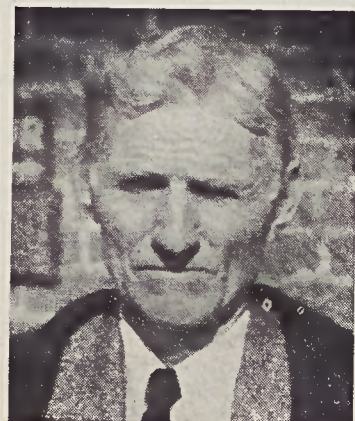

W. P. Berrier

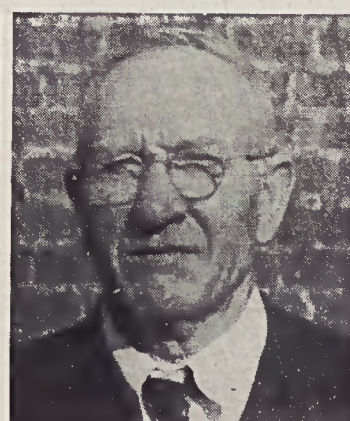

L. A. Belcher

James H. Frith

James E. Gilbert

W. D. McBride

Mecklenburg, Va., June 22, 1876. Danville. Came to Marshall Field & Co. as Second Hand in Dye and Draper Blanket Mill.

Patrick County, Va., on May 10, started working in the Napping Mill and remained on that Kernersville, N. C., on February 1, 1916. Came to Marshall Field & Co. in May, 1916, as Second Hand in Warehouse. Later transferred to the Draper Blanket Department, in 1917.

born in Carroll County, Va., on May 1, 1876. Came to the mill as coal miner in Dante, Va. Came to the mill in April, 1919, in Storage and November 4, 1874. Spent several years in the mill before coming to Marshall Field & Co. in the Sales Department, Bedsprad Mill. Worked as Oiler.

Patrick County, Va., on August 1, 1908. Came to Marshall Field & Co. in the Woolen Mill in 1908. Worked in the Sales Department, and gate watchin Rockingham County on October 1, 1877. Started work for Marshall Field & Co. in the Draper Blanket Mill, transferring to the Draper Blanket Mill in 1931.

Noah C. Lawson, born in Stokes County on September 2, 1879. Has worked continuously in the Woolen Mill since September, 1925, until retired.

W. F. Barham, born in Rockingham County on March 3, 1880. In 1923 he started work in the Woolen Mill and remained there until retired.

James H. Frith, born in Franklin County, Va., on August 22, 1878. Started working for Marshall Field & Co. in 1921, in Towel Mill Bleachery. Remained on that job until retired.

James E. Gilbert, born in Patrick County, Va., on November 18, 1878. First employed January, 1924, resigning because of ill health. Re-employed in June, 1925, in Towel Mill, Packing Department.

W. D. McBride, born in Grayson County, Va., on October 16, 1879. Has worked continuously as carpenter in the Fieldale shop from 1933 until retired.

Edna Savyers, born in Rockingham County on June 6, 1876. Started work for Marshall Field in August, 1925, in the Package Remnant Department of the Bleachery. Remained there until retiring.

Lula Motley, born in Leatherwood, Va., on December 13, 1877. Started work for Marshall Field & Co. in 1921, as Cloth Inspector in Draper Blanket. Has always worked at that job.

Karastan Mill By Francis Watson

Elizabeth Spinks attended the funeral of her cousin, G. W. Carter, at Danville, Va., on Monday of last week.

We are very glad to hear that Flossie Fuller is much better and able to be back to work.

Minnie Berrier recently spent several weeks in Portsmouth with her husband, S. 2/c Harold (Snip) Berrier.

Elizabeth Parrish was out from work several days last week, due to the illness and death of her husband's uncle, Benjamin J. Harvey, Reidsville, N. C.

We are all very glad to have Dollie Moore back at work after being out several weeks due to sickness.

It's interesting to know that Pvt. Elmer E. Powell, stationed in India, received his Christmas gift only thirteen days after it was mailed by his wife in Leaksville. It was a wedding band. I guess Chris wanted all the girls over there to know that he was married, so you had better watch out Pvt. Powell.

Annie Black spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Joyce, at Spencer, Va.

Hilda Joyce spent Tuesday in Danville, Va.

Bertha Cole's son, Louis J. Cole, A/S, has just left Naval hospital at Bainbridge, Md., after a five weeks' illness.

Beulah Burnette spent Friday in Winston.

Mrs. S. E. Hatcher is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. James Gallimore, while her daughter, Mrs. Dempsey Shelton, is honeymooning in Asheville, N. C.

Sallie Shreve has been out several days due to sickness.

Evelyn Dunn and daughter, Dorothy, Mrs. Shirley Taylor and Mrs. Thelma Land celebrated Thanksgiving with the state of Virginia this year and spent Thursday in Danville.

Harry Haig is with us again from Sales Department, in New York.

Fay Young of the Setting Department was absent from work last week, due to the fact that there was a very special house guest in her home. He was none other than A/S Gilbert L. Lopez of New Mexico, stationed at Bainbridge, Md. A "few" of us got a glimpse of them when they came into the mill one afternoon and we are all getting very much interested. Fay, we really would hate to lose you. During the week they were entertained by Mrs. J. E. Stegall, Mrs. C. M. Luther and Mrs. D. T. Harbour.

Lessie Shelton, Ella Gilley and Beatrice Earles spent Saturday in Danville, Va.

Mrs. Mary Ray has received word that her son, Cpl. Melvin D. Ray, has been granted a 25-day furlough for Christmas. This will be his first visit home since last Christmas. Gaynelle says they are all looking forward to his visit.