Winners Announced In Essay Contest

High school students from Leaksville, Draper and Fieldale submitted so many splendidly written essays on "What I Saw On My Visit To The Marshall Field and Company Exhibit" that the judges with difficulty selected the finest ones among them. The winners, as announced on June 14th, were:

Leaksville High—1st prize, Ann Norman; 2nd prize, Shirley Hawkins; 3rd prize, Billy Marshall.

Fieldale High—1st prize, Tommy Wilson; 2nd prize, Brice M. Stultz, III; 3rd prize, John Randolph Smith.

On Wednesday, June 20, the successful contestants gathered in the office of J. F. Wilson to receive their awards and hear Mr. Wilson commend them on their success and on the excellence of their essays. In the picture at right are shown left to right: Tommy Wilson, Fieldale; Evelyn Hairfield, Draper; John Randolph Smith, Fieldale; Shirley Hawkins, Leaksville; and Billy Marshall, Leaksville. Other winners not present when the picture was made are Ann Norman, Leaksville; Herman Coble, Jr., Draper; Lamont Garrett, Draper; and Brice M. Stultz III, Fieldale.

Attention Relatives Of Service Men and Women

You have been informed that the company is now getting out a booklet in which it is hoped and expected to have pictures and service record of all men and women who have gone into military service. The company is anxious to include every man and woman who have gone into service in this booklet. This includes, of course, all men and women from the company who have participated in World War II and who may or may not now be working for the Company.

The Company, however, does not have pictures and it is up to you relatives and friends to furnish the pictures if you want your son, daughter, sweet-
