

Mention Around the Mills

Bedsread Mill

Mrs. Frank Jones

Mrs. Hurley Vestal spent the week-end in Winston-Salem with her mother, Mrs. W. L. King.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Nelson visited Mrs. Nelson's sister, Mrs. Frazier, on the Reidsville Road and found both Mr. and Mrs. Frazier ill with the "flu." We hope for them both a speedy recovery.

Bill Martin is laid up with a broken arm. Bill, didn't you know better than to ride a motorcycle! They're dangerous, boy.

Marion Beck has accepted a job as timekeeper in the Weave room. Hope you'll like your new job, Marion.

Morrel Conner has resigned his position as timekeeper. Guess the Texas sunshine spoiled him. He's bought a truck and will no doubt enjoy a lot of Carolina sunshine driving it. Good luck to you, Morrel. We miss you.

The Weave room extends their deepest sympathy to the family of Mr. Raymond Kendrick, who died last Tuesday. He was a very kind and considerate man to work for and we every one miss him.

Mr. Hurley Vestal also has our sympathy in the death of an uncle, Mr. Miles Vestal, who died last week. He was a native of Yadkin County but had lived in Spray for several years. He is survived by his wife, the former Bessie Mattock, and the following children: Mrs. Dan Aheron, Mrs. David Rorrer of Spray, Mrs. John Payne of Charlotte, Jack of Georgia, Andrew of Booneville, and Clarence of Spray; two brothers: John of Martinsville and Eugene of Norfolk; three sisters: Mrs. Mary Wooten and Mrs. Sally Ziglar of Winston-Salem, and Mrs. Joe Schindie of Baltimore, Md.

Our reporter, Rachel Carter, is still out due to a fall. Hurry back, Rachel; we miss you.

We extend our sympathy to Bill Martin who lost his father last week.

Ernest Lamar has accepted a position in the Dying department.

Central Warehouse Chatter-box By Leroy Sweeney

Packing department memoirs: Beware of the odes of March!! Avoid accidents and practice safety, both in the home and on the job. Today and every-day, safety must come first.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Boyd had another enjoyable week-end by having their daughter, Lorene, at home with them for a three-day leave of absence.

Lorene, I am proud to say, is a member of Uncle Sam's "Waves," and is now stationed in Washington, D. C.

We were all very sorry to hear of the auto accident that Tom Pratt had, but were awfully glad that he escaped serious injury. Do be a bit more careful from now on, Tom!

At this writing, both Fred Odell and Oscar Craddock are still on the sick list. Let's hope that in the very near future both of them will be well and back on the job with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlis J. Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy E. Sweeney spent the past Saturday shopping and "doing the town" of Danville, Va.

"Heaven can wait, this is paradise just being here with you," sings Bell Nelson happily every day. It is said that she has found an "Angel." We wonder who "He" is!!

"Gold is where you find it," so the saying goes, but Wilbert Everette found "eight bits" the other day and has been wearing a big broad smile ever since!!!

Our sincere regrets and deepest sympathy go out to James Newman in the loss of his brother-in-law, Mose Rogers.

Mr. P. L. Talbert, better known as "Kingfish," says that he has a genuine "motor bike" in pretty fair condition that he is raring to sell!! Come and get it! First come, first served!!

Bleachery Stock Dept. Notes: It seems that "everything" is pretty quiet on the "sheet and pillowcase" front this issue. Maybe we'll have better luck the next time!! Who knows???

Bedsread Stock Dept. Musings: It seems like this department gets around a lot. As you all will agree from the following trips taken: Marshall Cheek visited in Greensboro Sunday. Mrs. Alice Williams visited in Reidsville Sunday. Itaski Brim and Mrs. "Shive" Caudle visited Draper this week-end and enjoyed the sights. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shough and daughter, Helen, visited in Vesta, Va., Sunday. Mrs. Nelda Coward took a run over to Martinsville Saturday. Sorry, but we have a sick list, too. They are Jack Odell, Bonnie Hill, and Mattie Whitt. Hope to see you back soon, guys and gals. More odds and ends the next time.

Blanket Stock Dept. Items: And from this department we hear "No news is good news," serenaded by Montague Thomas and Bill Payne. Come on, boys, give me a hand! I need it!!

Storage and Shipping Dept. Ad Libs: Ethel Shively attended a "brush demonstration" Thursday night and won the door prize—a powder mitt full of "Heap smellum good stuff." Boys, watch out and don't be overcome.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. McBride visited their son and his family in Draper Sunday afternoon. But can you imagine Mr. Mac's surprise when his two-year-old grandson called him "Nelson."

If anyone ever has any trouble "getting around" in Leaksville, see or call Sunshine Robertson. I understand that she won a prize at a party Saturday night for naming the largest number of streets in Leaksville. Do you think you could do as well with Spray, Shine??

Neil D. Shively, A.O.M. 3/c, formerly of the Shipping department, made his folks happy Tuesday night. He called home to say that he is at Norfolk, Va., and that he expects to be discharged Friday night. We'll be glad to see Jack back again.

Say, has anyone heard of a "hold-up?" Robert Harris has been seen sporting a new jacket.

A very domestic sight was seen the other afternoon: Jesse DeHart, Jr., and his wife sawing wood with a "cross-cut saw." Buddy, did Ann work you down to a "nub" Bub??

A last-minute news item for the Packing department: Bob Brown got a "big kick" out of spending the past week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brown in Randleman, N. C.

Rayon Mill

By Mildred Saunders and Ray Warner

Another week, another Mill Whistle! And as for news, well, that's another question. We'll try to give you some of the goings'on around the Rayon.

Ronald Browne is reported to be the happiest guy in the mill. Reason—the following news from the three sons in service: Billy M. Browne, who has been with the first Marine Division since Okinawa is on his way home from Tientsin, China; Ronald Jr. is on his way home from Antwerp, Belgium; Thomas Browne, radioman third class, writes he has been playing ball in Eniwetor Siapan and Guam. He is having lots of fun and says hello to his friends in the Tri-Cities. Too bad all the boys can't come home at one time Ronald, and then you could really have a home coming.

We would like to express our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Miles Vestal, who passed away last week.

Hey, girls! Have you seen the two boys back from service in the Preparation department, Charlie Wray and "Inky" Robertson. Not married either!

Will Sykes was shopping in Danville Saturday. Will, your favorite niece says for you to bring her some chocolate covered peanuts on your next shopping trip.

Here's another lucky fellow! James Hobson home from the service with an honorable discharge.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Johnston have had more visitors recently. This time their
