

Rayon Mill

(Continued from Page Two)

daughter Mrs. Eva Sykes from Haw River came to see them.

Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to the Durham family in the recent death of their father, John Durham.

S2/c Curtis Jeffries visited the mill yesterday. It was good to see you again, Curtis.

People sure get around lately. Miss Martha Jane Dunn spent the week-end visiting schoolmates in Roanoke and attended the mid-winter formals at V.P.I. She returned to her snowed-under desk Monday morning and has been working like a Turk to get it cleared up.

Miss Virginia Ward took in the sights of Leaksville Saturday evening and reported a wonderful time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Blackburn visited in Martinsville Sunday.

Joe Braitsch has joined the going-around crowd. He spent the week-end in Newport News, Va.

Guess Mr. McCollum and Carl Rhodes should be in the homemakers class. Mr. Mac was seen raking his yard Saturday afternoon and Carl declares he stayed home and did the dishes for Mrs. Rhodes the whole week-end.

Pfc. Thomas J. Warren from Chanute Field, Ill., has received his discharge.

Roy Martin isn't grinning around for nothing this week. Ask him about his surprise birthday party Saturday night. Lots of gifts, lots of fun and a year older but, who minds getting older? Life begins at 65 now-a-days.

Blanket Mill

By Katherine Turner

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fuller and small son, David have returned to be with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Fuller. Ralph was recently discharged from the Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Willis visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Adkins of Burlington during the week-end.

We sympathize deeply with Mr. and Mrs. Arnie Mason in the loss of their small son.

We are glad to have Rosa Stultz back with us after a long illness. And we are sorry Hilda Smith is ill at this writing and hope that she will be soon be better.

Miss Lucille Strader is walking on clouds. We know—that certain boy friend is home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Perry visited their son, John and his wife in Fieldale, Sunday.

Ruby Maness is enjoying that long awaited vacation. Hubby Alvin finally arrived home with an honorable discharge after 36 months overseas.

Bob Martin is awfully blue. The Navy took his last son and anyone knowing of a son to be adopted, please notify Bob.

We are still wondering if J. E. Perry knows what kind of shower he went to last Friday night at Ben Wade's.

Fay Barker is all smiles again and no wonder—her boy friend is back again from a six weeks' vacation.

Ben Wade and R. E. Martin enjoyed

This handsome young man is Robert Glennon Webber. He's nine years old and in the third grade. Bobby Glen is a grandson of the late R. S. Mills, Jr., well-known Draper druggist. Mother is employed in the Blanket mill Weave department.

the week-end visiting relatives in Norfolk, Va.

J. C. Stultz was strutting a handsome spring outfit Sunday morning. Such poise and grace. We wonder where it came from. Won't you tell us, J. C.?

Order and Billing

By Glennice Jones

You people that have had so many changes made in your offices are not by yourselves! You are all invited to see us and our new lights. Everyone watched the installation of these lights so well that now, they, boys and girls, all declare they are ready to go to work as an electrician's assistant. We imagine the girls are particular which electrician they want to assist though.

We have noticed a certain bloom in the cheeks of Marjorie Perry and Ozelle Harter. Could it be the reflection of the gorgeous roses that each received on St. Valentine's day?

Minnie Gillie seems to be mighty pleased over her sailor being made a civilian.

Rebecca Pender has a man crooning to her nowadays. Her request one morning was "Let It Snow." And it wasn't over the radio either.

Want Ads Attention: John Eggleston needs a bell of some sort for a special need of his own. For information, see him.

Seen lately in "these parts":

A beautiful diamond on Elaine Nance's finger. Have we heard Easter mentioned?

F. S. written on a certain bachelor's scratch pad.

Robert Joyce and Ed Martin enjoying a Pepsi-Cola.

Bertha Mae Pyron getting excited over a trip to Danville. Why did she say she didn't work the next day.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson announce the birth of a daughter, February 22. Mrs. Johnson will be pleasantly remembered as the former Odessa Priddy, who worked with us for some time.

A large number of our folks swayed down Danville way to hear Sammy Kaye. They all reported a wonderful time had by each and every one.

Headlines!!!

Look at these headlines:

LEAKSVILLE BANK & TRUST COMPANY ELECTS OFFICERS.

CAROLINA COUNCIL HAS INTERESTING MEETING.

FIELDALE BOOSTERS CLUB HOLDS REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING.

FIRE AT DRAPER DOES CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE MONDAY.

LOCAL ROTARIANS ENJOY MEETING IN GREENSBORO.

AMERICAN LEGION HOLDS SPECIAL MEETING.

"Y" CAMPAIGN BROUGHT TO SUCCESSFUL END.

Recognize them? Oh, you do! Well, it is true that they could have been taken from today's newspapers but the fact is they were taken from copies of The Arrow, for the month of February, 1926—exactly twenty years ago.

Who said times have changed?

CARD OF THANKS

M. R. Culp and family wish to extend their thanks to the many friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy shown during the illness and death of their brother S. H. Culp.

M. R. CULP and FAMILY

To a tramp who wanted to earn a bite to eat, a woman said: "If I thought you were honest, I'd let you go to the chicken house and gather eggs."

"Lady," he replied, "I was manager at a bath house for fifteen years and never took a bath."

Seeing women replacing men

In many an occupation

Starts a fellow to asking them

For a rational explanation.

What work did they do before and who

Now does what the women used to do?

Diamonds are chunks of coal that stuck to their jobs.