

Sheeting Mill

By Billie Williams

Most anyone can blame "bruises" on a car wreck. We wonder if this was really a wreck, or a misunderstanding between husband and wife. How about it, Myrtle?

.....

Regieland Lee Denney is the six-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Denney, of Spray. Daddy is employed in the Carding department of the Sheeting mill.

.....

Pfc. Walter and Robert Mitchell, sons of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Mitchell, are both in the U. S. Army, each entering service last year. They were employed with Marshall Field and Company and worked in the Sheeting Weave room. Walter is now stationed in Germany. And Robert is now at Fort Bragg.

Wedding Bells

The wedding bells are ringing for Miss Ruth Setliff. She will be the lucky bride of Mr. "Sparky" Clark, who lives near Draper. He's the man who rides the little blue scooter, and can't they go places! Be careful, "Sparky," don't spill her.

We are very glad to have Mrs. Iola Pruitt back with us after a long period of illness.

There are quite a few girls in the Spinning department who have fever blisters. Could it be they have been playing postoffice. How about it, gals?

Believe it or not, but a man in our department and Cassie Jones have a lot in common, as far as a train is concerned. But he has Cassie beat a mile when it comes to chain-drive T-models. How about it, James?

Two girls in the Spinning room lost quite a bit of money. Either out of their pocketbooks or maybe in a poker game. Which one was it, Doris and Nannie?

We were very sorry that the man who was seeking the job as Jack Steward's chauffeur applied at the Personnel Office at Draper too late. Better luck next time!

Miss Nancy Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Mitchell of Draper, spent the week-end with her brother at Fort Bragg.

Karastan News

By Doris N. Stultz

The Cabel Gilberts recently moved to their new home on the Stoneville Road. Cabel says the place is fine, even the blooming peach trees.

Ann Kerley is anticipating a grand week-end with her returning sailor friend, Bill Fallin.

Mr. Marvin Johnson and his family were the week-end guests of Mrs. Grace Sawyers.

Mrs. Ira Craddock recently visited her daughter, Mrs. Layman Hayden, in Newport News, Va.

Mrs. Mamye Chambers, of Baltimore, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Everette Nelson.

To make a study of loom improvements for Marshall Field and Company, Mr. Turner Hayden has been in New York and Worcester, Mass., for the past two weeks. Little wife hopes he learns fast and hurries home.

Mrs. Tom Hall is preparing for the home-coming of her two sons-in-law,

.....

This young lady recently celebrated her third birthday. She is Brenda Lee Vaskelis, daughter of Mrs. Christine Vaskelis, of the Karastan mill.

Sherill E. Storey and Grover Lee Matlock.

To join her husband in Franklin, Va., Mrs. Helena Bryant is resigning her

.....

Nadine, Larry, and Lonnie Clark are children of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Clark, both of whom are employed in the Karastan mill.

.....

position in the Burling department.

Mrs. William Lefew is expecting her husband home after three years of military service.

Roy and George Whitten have had their brother, Joe Whitten, of Radford, Va., visiting them this week.

Mr. Dillard Marshall and family visited their son at Wake Forest during the week-end.

Recent brides in Karastan office are Mrs. Benjamin Dunton, nee Barbara Freeman, and Mrs. Philip Sapp, nee Elizabeth Boyd.

New employees in the Setting department include Helen Westbrook, Hazel Purdy, Mary O'dell, Margaret Gaudin, Ruth Lee, Verlina Lindley, Doris Gibson, and Constance Bowan.

The Finishing department regrets to lose Minnie Snead who is leaving our employ.

Kermit Martin arrived home Tuesday night. Judy and Stella are still too thrilled to talk. Kermit has been on duty in Germany.

The folks in Karastan Weave room are delighted to welcome Paul Tiller back to their department.

Margaret Kerley and her friend, Mrs. Frances Anora of New York City, were houses guests of Miss Katharine Gardner in Greensboro this week. All three were former school pals; so, a very happy time was had by all.