CHARTER MEMBERS OF CAROLINA COUNCIL

O. C. Koontz was born in Lexington, N. C., and came to us on October 15, 1916, as general office worker at Bedspread Mill. Transferred to General Office, Spray, May 1, 1939; transferred to Scheduling department one year later. In 1941 transferred to scheduling orders and production on which job he is still working in the Order and Billing department. Charter member of 25-Year Club, with nearly 30 years of continuous service.

B. F. Lee was born in Anderson, South Carolina. Began work at the Rhode Island mill in December, 1918, as shop mechanic, later becoming foreman. Transferred to Karastan Mill in June, 1930, as mechanic. Has also worked for seven years as electrician in the Dan River Cotton Mills, Danville, Va. Transferred from Karastan to Finishing mill in Plant Service department, where he is now working.

E. J. Mansfield was born in Fall River, Massachusetts. Worked for Stevens Manufacturing Co. for nine years before coming to us on May 1, 1909, to work at Bedspread mill. Transferred to Finishing Mill where he is now working as foreman of the Bedspread Cutting and Sewing department. Charter member of the 25-Year Club, with approximately 37 years of continuous service.

Bedspread Mill Mrs. Frank Jones

Well, it is time for the news and, "Sorry, no news available," is all I hear, but will try to find out something.

Hazel Blackburn and Sallie Gray have both taken jobs in the Weave room as battery hands. Hope you'll like us, girls!

Quite a few ex-servicemen have returned to their former jobs, among them being Aubrey Purdy, Emory Apple, Herbert Buckner, Ray Carter, Henry Crowder, Dewey Talley, George Vernon, Burdette McPeters and others that I can't think of at the present time.

Albert Hill, son of Rev. and the late Mrs. Sam Hill, and Billie Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everette Roberts, decided two could live cheaper than one. Yes, they motored to Reidsville Saturday afternoon and were hitched for life. Good luck to you, Albert and Billie!

We are glad to see Rachel Carter's sunny smile again. We have missed you a lot, Rachel, and we're glad you are able to be back at work again. We also wish to welcome Mrs. Nannie Gilley back again after being out sick for some time. Work agrees with you, Mrs. Gilley. You're looking better already.

David Petty is working in the Weave room. No place like the good old Weave room, eh, Petty!

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Williams and daughter, Lillian, of Greensboro, visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones over the week-end.

Ola Mae, please hide the crackers and pickles. Your dad makes me so hungry about nine o'clock every morning. By the way, I wonder if he got any sour pickles at the Chinese restaurants he went to, for he was up in the air in the Empire State building and under the ground on a subway, all over Noo Yawk and Chinatown.

E. G. Buckner and T. H. Hayden have just returned from Worcester, Mass., where they visited the Crompton and Knowles Loom Works in the interest of the new looms for the Bedspread mill that are now passing down the assembly lines.

They report that they had a very interesting, informative and pleasant trip and those of Compton and Knowles made their stay there so pleasant that they will long be remembered.

Don't Worry

You wouldn't worry about what people think of you,

If you could only know how seldom that they do.

BLASTS

From the Draper Office Carrie Hill and Evelyn Lewis

Gladys B. Smith reported a very quiet week-end this morning. Her husband, Willie, went to Durham. Where did you get those bruises, shadow boxing?

Evelyn Lewis is out nursing the sick again. Her husband, Herbert, is very ill. Hope you are feeling much better.

Hilda Smith and Nellie Minter had better write to "Dear Answerer To All Questions." Seems more girls are having trouble since the Army and Navy are discharging the men.

Virginia G. Huffman has arrived safely in Indiana. Her husband, Joe, was dated to be home the 24th of March.

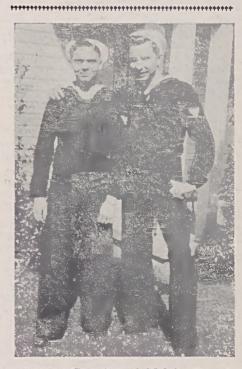

Our welcome mat has been put out for Ed Gerringer, who has been in the Army. Ed is working in the Sheeting mill office. Sure is nice to see that smiling face again.

Wacs, Waves and Spars are supposed to be coming home soon. We know of one person who is "Waiting for the train to come in."

Well, folks, you can relax now! The voting for the ABC stores seems to be licked. Guess that is why all the people are drinking Coca-Colas this morning, dry and thirsty.

Secrets are things we give to others to keep for us.—E. Hubbard,

Our deepest sympathy goes to Mr. R. B. Hairfield and children, in the death of his wife.

Lamont Garrett and Melvin Howell, corpsmen in the U. S. Naval Reserve. Lamont is stationed at Coco Sola, Canal Zone, and Melvin is at Portsmouth.
