

MARSHALL FIELD OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS VISIT THE MILLS

Officers and directors of Marshall Field and Company, who recently made a tour of the mills at Leaksville, Spray, and Draper, and Fieldale, Va., are shown above. Front row, left to right—J. Frank Wilson, James L. Palmer, Albert B. Dick, infant daughter.

Jr., Marshall Field, III, Stanley Field, and Luther H. Hodges. Back row, left to right—R. T. Graham, James Simpson, Hughston M. McBain, Henry P. Isham, and Harold W. Whitcomb.

RAYON MILL

(Continued from Page 2)

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rickman spent last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Amos. They were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Warner.

Welcome to Bobby Blackburn, Billy Morris and Isaac O'Dell, new employees in the Preparation department.

Wedding bells rang out last week. Vera Carter and Herman Purdy were married in S. C. Saturday. We wonder who'll take the next step? Could it be Wannie Parker? That new sparkler gives us ideas.

Recently Mr. and Mrs. Howard Webb and Mae visited Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Webb and Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Hope at Charleston, W. Va.

Pvt. Paul Parker is home on a 15-day furlough after 29 months' service in India and China.

The stork is always busy. Congratulations to Sgt. and Mrs. Jack Dillon. A son, Edward Norman, arrived Easter Sunday.

We're happy to see Mrs. Cicero Hall back on the job.

Word has been received that Sgt. Thomas A. Jones, Fairbanks, Alaska, will report to Fort Meade, Md., for his discharge.

Bedsread Mill

Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Fargis and Mrs. Betty Vestal attended the State convention of The Church of the Living God at Winston-Salem Saturday.

Mrs. Hurley Vestal spent the week-end with her mother in Winston-Salem.

There will be prayer meeting at Rev. Grover Moore's on the Reidsville Road Saturday night. Rev. Gert Moore, pastor of the Church of the Living God, will conduct the services. Everybody welcome.

I wonder if Bill Smith likes his job? Someone from the Weave room wants to know. What about it, Smitty??

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Branscomb, of Reidsville, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Smith Sunday.

Rebecca Hoover, Iris Ramsey, and Doris Wimbish attended the rodeo at Greensboro Sunday.

Jack Blackburn and Josephine Eubanks were quietly married May 2nd at the home of Rev. Mr. Whitley.

Morton Beck, our timekeeper, has just returned from his honeymoon. Yes, I think she was a Jones.

Orie, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson, broke his foot last Saturday. Sonny, don't you know you can't pick up a Chevrolet motor.

Bill Martin is back after being out some time with a broken arm.

Speaking of broken bones, Elaine, how is your broken finger?

We all unite in extending our most sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Euckner, in the death of their daughter, Ola Mae Buckner. She was a very sweet girl.

Buy . . . Sell . . . Swap

LOST—One Eversharp pencil somewhere in Karastan. Please return to Ed Dallas, Shipping Room.

ATTENTION, Draftsmen or Artists—For sale: a collapsible drawing stand. Price $7.00. See Ronald L. Hirst, Lee Street, Spray.

FOR SALE—Employees wishing to purchase Tomato, Pepper, or Sweet Potato plants can get them from C. S. Warren.

FOR SALE—One Singer Sewing Machine. See Paul Brammer, Highlands.

LOST—Man's Elgin wrist watch between Washington Cafe and Hamilton St., Leaksville. Finder call 562-W or 339 and receive reward.