H. W. Whitcomb Stresses Importance of "Y" To Community And Industry

Macon Miller Also Addresses Board of Control Members At Draper Y. M. C. A. Meeting

H. W. Whitcomb, Assistant General Manager of the Manufacturing Division of Marshall Field & Company, and Macon P. Miller, Director of Industrial and Public Relations of Marshall Field & Company, spoke at a joint meeting of the Board of Directors of the Tri-City Y. M. C. A.'s at the Draper "Y" on Tuesday, April 23. The invocation was pronounced by Wiley A. Ashworth, member of the Draper Y's Men's Club, and after dinner was served to members of the Board and guests, the Y's Men's Quartet of Draper rendered two numbers.

Mr. Whitcomb made an inspiring address on the topic, "Y. M. C. A.'s Value to Community and Industry," and emphasized the importance of the Y. M. C. A. program in industry and in the community. He said he was a member of the Hi-Y during his high school years and was active in the program in his home town. He urged members of the Board of Directors to "put their shoulders to the wheel" with renewed enthusiasm in support of the Y. M. C. A. program and activities. As a final challenge, Mr. Whitcomb reviewed the annual report, stressing the need for greater financial support and a larger membership in the Y. M. C. A., in order that a greater and more beneficial service could be rendered by the "Y."

Mr. Miller, who was second speaker, talked briefly on "Y. M. C. A. and Industry," and presented four important points useful in organizing a Y. M. C. A. program that will best serve the needs of everyone. He said that the most important value to industry is to learn to work with people and that the programs sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. help tremendously in promoting this endeavor.

A Well-spent Day

Take a dash of water cold
 And a little leaven of prayer
 A little bit of sunshine gold
 Dissolved in the morning air
 Add to your meal some merriment
 And a thought for kith and kin
 And then, as a prime ingredient
 A plenty of work thrown in
 But spice it all with the essence of love
 And a little whiff of play
 Let a wise old book and a glance above
 Complete a well-spent day.
