

Mention Around the Mills

Rayon Mill

By Mildred Saunders and Virginia Hurd

Without mentioning any name we'll just tell you a certain little blonde is bubbling over with happiness. Must have been that telephone conversation with T-5 Rufus Shelton, who has just arrived in New York.

We extend our sincere sympathy to Joe Warren, whose father, Lee Warren, passed away August 22.

Happy to have John Robinson and Cal Shelton on the job again.

New-comers to the Rayon are: George Overby, Frances Ferguson, Faye Carter, Leona Heffinger, and Mary Thompson. We greet you and hope you shall enjoy working with us.

Just heard why Valma Hall is grinning from ear to ear. A new grandson was born August 27 and is he a proud gramp?

It's believed that Nell Marie Webster is happier than a lark lately. "Red" is coming home.

Everyone will be proud to know that Nettie Durham is recuperating rapidly and expects to be home again very soon.

The whole Weave Room, especially Jamie Casey, seems to envy "Tippy" Robinson. A Goat farm started it all.

We sure do have a versatile secretary. Yep! now Annie Ruth paints during her leisure time.

Among those visiting were:

Miss Pauline Paschall, daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Paschall, recently visited relatives near Greensboro.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. George

Yates Twins

Ruth and Rachel, twin daughters of Mrs. Dovie Yates of the Rayon Copping Department, recently celebrated their 11th birthday. They are holding their baby sister, Dixie Lee.

Chandler, daughter Gail, and Beatrice Trent were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Light.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Webb, Mrs. A. A. Hazelwood, Mrs. Pilot Murphy, and Mae Webb enjoyed a day at Lakeside Park in Roanoke.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haynes and Betty Massey visited relatives in Asheboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Weaver attended the Atkin's reunion in Stuart, Va.

Bedsread News

By Ada Jones

Mrs. Charlotte Richardson remains ill at Leaksville hospital. Hurry and get well, Charlotte. We miss you.

Madelaine Oakley spent the week-end with her brother, John D. Oakley, at Radford, Va. She was accompanied home by her nephew, Billy Denny, who spent the past week here.

Bobbie Buckner is back with us after military service. Welcome home, Bobbie.

We also welcome Mrs. Lula DeHart and Mrs. Howard Scott, new employees. We hope you'll like us, girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Matthews had as their guests last week Mrs. Matthews' sister and niece, respectively, Mrs. Genevieve Furgeson and Mrs. Vada Hatfield, of Bluefield, W. Va.

Neal Shively: Rooster Killer

Neal went out to feed his chickens one day last week. He spied something he took to be a wart on the foot of his favorite rooster. Well, Neal cut the wart off, the toe off, and part of the foot off. Imagine his surprise next morning when he found the rooster dead—a 10-pound rooster at that, with meat as scarce as it is! Next time, Neal, when you find a chicken with a wart on its toe, cut off its head and save the chicken.

Tufted Mill

By Moir DeHart

We are glad to have Laura Farmer back after a week's illness.

Ethel Kirks is away on vacation this week.

Guerant Norman visited in North Wilkesboro during the week-end.

Doris Pierce and Rebecca Eanes spent Sunday in Greensboro.

Lillian Mills was a shopper in Reidsville Saturday.

We welcome the following new employees: Florence Sink, Betty Nelson, Demetris Gallimore, Anita Hall, Oakey Craddock, Arline Whitley, Hazel Wigginton, Nellie Sprinkle, Katherine Ratliff, Nellie Joyce, Tommy Nelson, and Myrtle Hughes.

Pvt. Ray Craig, shown here with his wife, is now with the 121st General Hospital Unit in Germany. He was employed in the Blanket Mill before entering service.

Gale Fagge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Fagge, will celebrate her third birthday September 9 at the home of her parents. Her mother works in Karastan Setting.