

Mention Around the Mills

Eugene Caudle, two years old, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Caudle. Father works in Bedsread Spinning.

week for life from Harvey Shively. I am regretful I cannot disclose the reason.

Everette Edwards is welcomed to the shop. He is the electrician and was formerly employed by Southern Electric in Greensboro. However, before going to Southern Electric he was employed by Marshall Field and Company.

Mrs. Lillie Lemons visited her brother, Warren Gatewood, of Dorasville, Ga., last week.

Our best wishes to "Pat" Patterson, and a speedy recovery from his operation.

Bleachery News By Charlotte Martin

Well, folks, here I am back again after being absent from the news a while. I've always heard "A bad penny always turns up" so here I am.

We have some new employees and we give them a hearty welcome. They are Iris Balsler and Polly Gunn. Welcome, girls, and hope you will like us.

We also have back with us after being in service for some time Ray Land. Glad to have you back, Ray.

The folks out on the sick list are—Erah Thomasson, Mayme Richardson, Allie Lee, Vena Alexander, and Millie Seal. Hurry back, girls. We sure do miss Gail Ann Minter, three years old, is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Minter, of Fieldale. Her father is assistant foreman of the Towel Mill Shipping Department.

Woolen Mill News By Millard Winecoff

J. G. Halsey has just returned from vacation which he spent on Nantucket Island, Mass. As for traveling: it takes 12 hours to get to Nantucket Island from New York by boat and train. But to save time Mr. Halsey flew both ways on a DC4—time: one hour and 20 minutes each way.

Mr. and Mrs. Rholie Bailey spent Saturday in Greensboro shopping. Incidentally, they have just moved into their new home in New Leaksville.

Mrs. Grace Roberts is certainly all smiles because she has moved in a brand new home—all hers, too. Also, her son, Jesse, seems to be having a big time in school—his first year.

I suppose Tom Betts should rate the front page but he hasn't given me a ride in his new Chrysler yet, so I'll just have to "dock" him a little. Incidentally, if the Woolen Mill office calls for Dr. Reeser, the "Doc" better bring his cold remedies 'cause Mr. Betts says everyone he takes to ride must "Remove shoes before entering." Also, I understand someone had to push him off at lunch the other day. (Editor's Note: Try turning on the switch.)

Your reporter was just offered 25c per

Betty Ann Shropshire celebrated her 11th birthday August 31 when she entertained a group of young people at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Shropshire, both of the Rayon Mill.

you.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Wilson and children spent the week-end in Axton, Va., with the former's father, Mr. Ben Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Richardson attended the funeral of the latter's aunt, Mrs. Dollie Sharon, Sunday at Palestine Methodist Church, near Stokesdale.

Mrs. Porter Setliff and children have returned to their home in Philadelphia after spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Dora Fowler.

We miss Harley Midkiff who is out sick, also. And please be careful Harley—and hurry back to work.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Fisher and family recently viewed the sights at Hanging Rock and Nag's Head.

We sure do miss "Mr. Al" Hodgson, who has been out sometime sick, and hope he will soon be able to be back with us. We wish for you a very speedy recovery.

Birthday Dinner

Mrs. Annie Meeks celebrated her birthday Sunday with around 100 of her friends, relatives and children. She was the recipient of many nice and useful gifts, and says she had a wonderful

(Continued on Page Three)