

Issued every Two Weeks by and for the Employees of Fieldcrest Mills, Division of Marshall Field & Company, Inc., Spray, North Carolina.

VOLUME SIX NUMBER TWO MONDAY, AUGUST 4

Entire Department Goes 14 Years Without Accident

The Karastan Packing and Snipping Department has estab- Cox, Lucille Robertson, Leon Ingram, Annie Evans, Homer lished an outstanding safety record in that the entire department has gone more than 14 years without a lost time accident. Employees of the department, shown above, left to right, are: Charlie Fulcher, Elizabeth Harris, Wilma Wilson, Mary Ruth Gilbert, Ludie Smith, Jesse Smith, Frances Gilbert, Maynard

Hundley, Carl Keaton, Bill Barton, John Martin, William Mc-Cormick, R. B. Davis, Jr., Artis Carter, Louis Cole, Edwin Fuller (assistant foreman), Leslie Oakley (foreman), and Robert Hairston. Snoda Martin and Edna Riddick were not present for the photograph.

Industrial Safety Studied By Bedspread Supervisors

The final session in the industrial safety course conducted for supervisors at the Eedspread Mill was held Wednesday afternoon July 30. The course was prepared by the National Safety Council in collaboration with the U. S. Department of Labor and was taught by Jones W. Norman, Leaksville personnel manager.

The class met for an hour each Wednesday afternoon for 10 weeks. A film covering some phase of industrial safety was shown at the opening of each session. The movie was followed by a set of questions based on the film which were to be answered on a true or false basis. The next step was presentation of the correct answers and discussions of the points raised by the film.

Titles for some of the films were "Follow the Leader", "Causes and Cures" "Safety is in Order", "Stop, Look, and Listen" and "Production with Safety."

Those completing the course were E. C. Tiller, E. M. Hodges, Will Perry, Turner Hayden, William Joyce, Paul Tiller (Karastan) and J. H. Crowder, Sr.

Dyeing Specialist Joins Staff Of Research And Quality Control Dept.

Horace D. Penn, who has just received his Master's degree in dyeing and chemistry at State College, Raleigh, joined the staff of the Research and Quality Control Department on July 15, according to an announcement by R. H. Tuttle, director of that department.

Penn's home now is Roanoke, Ala., although he is a native of Georgia. He received his B.S. degree in chemistry from Elon College in 1940. For the next two years he was science teacher in the public schools at Milton. From 1942 until 1945 he was connected with the dyeing and finishing department at Dan River Mills, Danville, Va., in laboratory and production work.

He returned to State College in 1945 to work on his Master's degree. From that time until joining Fieldcrest he was an instructor in the chemistry and dyeing department of the Textile school, carrying on these duties along with his studies. Tuttle said that Penn will devote his efforts here primarily to the problems of textile dyeing.

C. L. Peterson Joins Fieldcrest Mills Sales

Cameron L. Peterson has joined Fieldcrest Mills, division of Marshall Field & Company, as salesman for curtains, lace tablecloths, and embroidered bedspreads, it has been announced by R. T. Graham, General Sales Manager, and H. W. Grunau, Sales Manager of Home Furnishings.

After attending the University of Wisconsin, Mr. Peterson joined Powdrell Alexander, Inc., as curtain salesman for the Southeastern territory. Early in 1941 Mr. Peterson entered the U.S. Army for a year's training; however, Pearl Harbor changed this to "for the duration." Upon being discharged from the Army in 1946, Mr. Peterson joined the Richmond Dry Goods Company sales force, leaving them to join Fieldcrest Mills, where he will cover Southeastern accounts.