

Lunchtime Horseshoe Matches Attract Bedspread And Karastan Employees

A tournament to determine the best horseshoe team in each mill is planned, followed by a championship match between the Bedspread and Karastan. Photo at right shows Alvis Purdy, left, and Charles Kirkman. Above, standing left to right, are: W. J. Baughn, Jess Adams, Leslie Oakley, Thurman Hall, and Roy Wilmoth. Seated: Jack Roberts, Henry Burgess, Ed Dallas, Edwin Fuller, and Raymond Tolbert.

Horseshoes and park benches placed on the vacant lot opposite the gatehouse at the Leaksville mills are proving popular with Karastan and Bedspread people. There are lively contests at lunch time and when changes of shifts are made. Many of the employees use the benches for a place to just sit and smoke and relax. Leaksville Personnel is responsible for the arrangements.

Karastan News

(By Doris N. Stultz)

Finishing and Carving:

Everyone is looking forward to that big horseshoe match between Morris Turner and Leslie Oakley at the horseshoe grounds opposite the mill gate.

Our best wishes to all those Karastan girls (eight in all!) who chose vacation time for their honeymoons.

Jannie McCullouch and Myrtle Sands are on the sick list. We wish them a speedy recovery.

M. B. Parks, of Elkin, has been visiting his brother, T. E. Parks, on the Ridgeway Road.

Mrs. Morgan Hinton, of Cambridge, Ohio, is visiting her sisters, Mesdames Willie Wilmoth, Robert Wilmoth, Allen Rumbley, of Leaksville; and Mrs. Leonard Earles, of North Spray.

Henry Burgess is planning to enter the veterans' hospital at Roanoke, Va., soon.

We extend our sympathy to Frances Watson, Setting Department Clerk, whose husband died unexpectedly during last week.

Family Reunion

The K. H. Wilmoth family reunion was held Sunday, July 6, and a picnic dinner enjoyed in the yard of the home. All of the nine children of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmoth were present with the exception of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Brannon and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Adams, of Oak Ridge, Tenn. Fifteen grandchildren were present for the occasion.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. J. Johnson, of Knoxville, Tenn., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Dorothy, to Ralph Wilmoth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Wilmoth, of Leaksville. The wedding is to take place in early September.

Miss Johnson, who has been the house guest of Mrs. Wilmoth, was honored at a miscellaneous shower Thursday evening, July 24, at which she received many lovely gifts. A delicious ice course was served by Mrs. Wilmoth, assisted by Mrs. Charlie Ross, joint hostess, and sister of the bridegroom-to-be.

TEXTILE STUDENTS VISIT:—Textile school seniors from State College, Raleigh, are shown above watching Herbert Pratt perform a test in the Quality Control and Research Laboratory. The students visited the Karastan and Woolen Mills July 22.