

Annual Banquet Is Held For Staff Of Local Y. M. C. A.'s

The annual banquet for the staff of the Tri-City Y. M. C. A.'s was held at the Y. M. C. A. Fieldcrest Cafeteria Sunday, December 21. Thirty-three persons including staff members and their wives and special guests attended.

J. K. McConnell, general secretary, was toastmaster. R. Moody Davis, president of the Board of Directors, brought greetings from the Board and extended congratulations to the staff upon the year's work.

Macon F. Miller, of Fieldcrest Mills, spoke briefly and Luther H. Hodges, general manager of the mills, presented a brief address concerning the Y. M. C. A. in world affairs. Mr. Hodges described a meeting which he attended recently when Eugene Burnett, National Y. M. C. A. president, was the speaker and he passed on some of Mr. Burnett's comment on world conditions following his return from the Orient.

Holiday Visitors

Fred Freeman of Utica, N. Y., spent the holidays with his nieces, Mrs. Henry Jurgensen, Jr., and Mrs. Stella Reed Ayers.

Mrs. Pearl Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jurgensen, Jr., and son, and Fred Freeman motored to Beckley, W. Va., during the Christmas season.

Your savings through U. S. Savings Bonds will bring many happy and secure New Years. Use the Payroll Savings Plan.

Buy . . . Sell . . . Swap

FOR SALE—Kitchen Cabinet, Heatrola, 1,000 pounds good Lespedeza Hay, $45 per ton. Also eight cases tomatoes, No. 2 cans, $3 per case.—J. H. Wade, Cascade Ave., Draper.

LOST—Male Hound, black and tan with white feet and neck, long ears, short legs. Anyone knowing whereabouts of this dog is requested to notify Edd Gillie, Blanket Cloth Room.

FOR SALE—Allen Range Wood and Coal Stove, hooked up for hot water, 12-gallon tank, $25.00. Also for sale: Big Early Wakefield Cabbage Plants, 35c per hundred.—R. F. Turner, 161 Fieldcrest Road, Draper.

FOUND—A watch, on Harris Street, Leaksville. Owner can get same by seeing me and identifying the watch.—"Red" Vernon, Bedspread Mill, first shift.

FOUND—Lady's scarf, near community Christmas tree on Boulevard.—Ada Jones, Bedspread Weave, first shift.

Personnel Of Wage Bureau Have Christmas Program

Members of the Fieldcrest Wage Bureau who gathered at the Central office in the Nantucket Building, Spray, on Christmas Eve for a brief Christmas program are shown above.

Seated, from extreme left, are: Gladys Martin, Kathleen Hopkins, Florence Fulcher, Inez Land, Hilda Smith, Vivian Winn, Ray Endicott, and Margaret Barnes. Standing are Cody Steagall, Ralph Pickup, Elwood Eggleston, S. E.

Adcock, R. H. Garrett, Tom Dillon, Numa Martin, Ernest Balser, C. W. Gallaher, Jr., N. D. Redmon, Jr., J. W. Sherwood, Robert Jamerson (face partially hidden) and Joe Hagler.

F. M. Holmes, Jr., head of the Wage Bureau, snapped the picture. Other members of the department who are not shown are Sam R. Thomas, W. H. Richardson, Jr., Floda Somers, and Lois Talley.

Miller & Rhoads Displays Embroidered Bedspreads

Miller & Rhoads, Richmond, Va., leading Southern department store, keeps a spotlight on beautiful Fieldcrest Embroidered Bedspreads in a permanent store display. The products of our Embroidered Bedspread Mill are featured in a special space in the Miller & Rhoads domestics department.