Former Employee, Now In Navy, Enjoys Paper

The following nice letter has been received from Kenneth Gillespie, who was employed in the Blanket Mill Jack Spinning before entering the navy in 1947. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gillespie, of Spray. His mother (Beulah) works in the Blanket Spinning Dept. The letter follows:

Dear Friends:

To me the Mill Whistle is indeed a friend. It helps me to keep in touch with the happenings of the "good ole Tri-Cities." I would be glad to hear all of my friends.

Kenneth C. Gillespie, H. A., U.S.N.H.

movie, "Cheaper By the Dozen," in which she was a principal character.

Hugh T. Bundy, president of the Council, presided. Invocation was by Mrs. W. J. Gordon.

E. W. Medbery, production manager of Fieldcrest Mills, introduced Dr. Gilbreth. Attendance prizes were awarded to Grover C. Harris, of the Blanket Mill, and Mrs. Durwood Smith, a guest.

Dr. Gilbreth's talk was broadcast by transcription Wednesday evening, November 22, over Station WLOE.

Picture above shows demonstration in the Red Cross Home Nursing Course. It shows how a towel can be used for a bed jacket and how a cardboard box can be made into a tray. The classes are taught by Mrs. D. M. Bouldin.

Members of the class demonstrating the home nursing techniques are Mesdames Alice Williams, Beatrice Adams, Dora Gilley, and Otis Gilley.
