

Beagle Winners

Stafford Stegall, assistant foreman of the Shearing Dept. at the Finishing Mill is shown with his two beagles which won awards in the first Beagle Show held at Leaksville February 10. by the recently organized Rockingham Beagle Club. Vernon's Black Beauty (shown at left) and Wiley, (right) won fourth place in the 13-inch group.

ELECTRIC BLANKET NEWS

(By Lois Shelton)

Lucile Ziglar is awaiting completion of new home on Stoneville road.

Douglas Smith, Repair Department, is new father of 7 lb. 3 oz, 19½ inch long baby boy, born February 26. Name: Gary Douglas.

Wanda Corum spent last week-end in Mt. Airy visiting her mother.

Freda Evans is out sick. We hope she will be back soon.

Myrtle Brooks entertained 14 young guests at a birthday-Valentine party for her 13-year old son, Ralph, Saturday, February 24.

BLEACHERY

(By Charlotte Martin)

The Bleachery employees sent Mrs. Annie Meeks' daughter, Nancy, who is a patient in Duke hospital a Sunshine Box, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brim visited the former's brother in Christiansburg, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dallas and daughter, Faye, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin visited Mrs. Claude Carter in Washington, D. C., last week-end.

Margaret Barton was delightfully showered in "Pink and Blue" with many lovely gifts last week by employees in the Sewing Room.

Fieldale News "TOWN DRAG"

(By Faye P. Warren)

Seen on the Town Drag:

The N. M. Harlowes going back into the retail business.

The Leonard Stultzes and the S. B. Mays sporting those nice Florida tans.

Mrs. E. Sherrill and Mrs. Neill Dalrymple entertaining for a bride-elect.

Clarence Pilson of the Towel Sewing Dept., leaving for the U. S. Army.

Dave Simons, Ralph Pickup and Jimmy Rimmer hoping those school children enjoy that new playground equipment.

Della Saunders and Gold Jamerson winning those cash prizes.

Mr. "Les B. Careful" wearing a bandage on his hand these days.

Raymond Martin attending those interesting games down at Elon.

Mrs. Emory Pace presiding at the punch bowl at a recent party.

Anna Merriman being able to be out again after a recent illness.

SYMPATHY

The entire organization expresses deepest sympathy to the family of the late Mrs. R. I. Morris.

Stranger Is Identified

In a recent issue we ran the picture shown here in an effort to identify the baby in a photograph that turned up in the office mail. The youngster is Walter Lee Simmons, Jr., two years old December 21 but who was only six months old when the picture was made. His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Simmons, are employed at the Karastan.

Lee Simmons, Jr.

His other grandfather, J. D. Glasgow, before going out sick was employed in the Rayon Weave Room and the grandmother, Mrs. Glasgow, works in the Electric Blanket Mill.

Bundle of Joy

Darrell Luther Craddock, four months old when picture was made, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Craddock, Jr. Both of his grandfathers are employed at Fieldcrest Mills, R. A. Amos at the Rayon Mill and Luther Craddock at the Finishing Mill. His father formerly worked in the Rayon Mill and his mother in the Fitted Sheet Dept.

Darrell Craddock

on Mill and his mother in the Fitted Sheet Dept.

Entertain Council

The picture above shows Dave Carroll (left) and Robert Heckard, from Winston-Salem who performed at the meeting of the Carolina Cooperative Council at Central YMCA February 15. The young men entertained the Council audience with songs, skits and pantomime.

In more serious moments, Mr. Carroll works in the men's clothing department at a store in Winston-Salem and Mr. Heckard is assistant cashier of the Hood Industrial Bank in the Twin Cities.

GENERAL OFFICE

(By Charlotte McBride)

A-partying we will go — Audrey Vestal (Tabulating Dep.) bride-elect of Norris Ziglar was entertained at a shower given by Elaine Ziglar (Accounting Dept.) and Mrs. William Ziglar (Finishing-Shipping Dept.) at the Girls' Club Tuesday evening. Contest prizes were won by Alma Vestal, Louise Nowlin, Lucille Ziglar, Martha Brame, Mary Lee Fitz and Nina Hilton.

Congratulations: Mr. and Mrs. Hansy Hankins (formerly Shirley Brown—Service Dept.) announce the birth of a son — William Roger on February 23. Mother and son are doing fine — Father will recover !!!

Mr. and Mrs. Furman Holland (Accounting Dept.) spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Black in Covington, Va.

We are proud to report that three of the girls from the General Office have finished the Home Nursing Course at the Leaksville Hospital and received their pins. They are as follows: Mildred Cassell, Irma Jones (Service Dept.) and Charlotte McBride (Budget Dept.)

FIELDCREST MILL WHISTLE