Get the Hang of It!

You'll stretch a dollar if you'll hang your clothes properly so they don't stretch out of shape. Clothes pins, clipped on carelessly, can leave "clutchmarks." Clothes not hung properly can get that sagged-out look.

Here are some do's and don'ts for laundry-hanging. Men's shirts should be hung by folding the bottom three or four inches of the tail over the line and pinned at each end. Fold sheets hem to hem and turn about four inches over the line. Use one clothes pin at each end and two in the middle to avoid sagging.

Make sure the sheet hangs straight. Fold handkerchiefs over the line, not by their corners. Never hang any garment by the shoulders. Always hang slacks or any type of trousers by the legs after washing. The wet weight of the garment will take almost all the wrinkles out.

The Big Night— Boy Scouts' Court of Honor

Two Eagle Scout awards, seven star and life pins and numerous other badges were awarded at the Dan River district court of honor in the recorder's courtroom in Spray Friday evening, February 13.

First class badges went to Joe Brumbeloe and Cecil Slayton, of troop 15. Second class badges were presented Jimmy Jones and Eugene C. Richardson, troop 8; Ronnie Hailey and Abraham Wilson, troop 27; and Charlie Davis, troop 86.

Those receiving merit badges were Wilfred Aheron, Junior Dunn, Bobby Joyce, George Ferguson, Michael Powell, Homer Washburn, George Ferguson and Charles Washburn, Explorer post 5; Lindley Butler, Charles Ferguson, Bill Knight, Richard Foster and William Ragsdale, troop 8; Ted Harrison, troop 26; Jackie Johnson, Charles Lasley, Mickey Lindsey, and Alec Purcell, troop 27; William Brown and Mac Robertson, troop 15.

EAGLE SCOUTS—Mrs. David Hopper of Spray pins an Eagle Scout badge on her son, Jimmy (left) while Bobby, another son, waits his turn. The brothers are members of Explorer Post 5. C. Lin Adams, of Reidsville, boy scout executive, of the Cherokee Council, watches the proceedings at the Dan River District Court of Honor.
