

Necessary Loss And Expense

ANOTHER MEETING employees receive reports on suggestions that have been made. At this point specific control measures are adopted and put into effect.

FOLLOW-UP—New methods that reduce waste are checked frequently to see how they are working out. Further improvements often are made after trial of new idea.

RECORDS—Wastemeter reports show amount of waste on each job in comparison with standard allowances. Wastemeter gives dollars and cents to waste so that money loss is indicated.

CHARTS POSTED IN DEPARTMENT SHOW RESULTS OBTAINED.
