

Community Club Holds Successful Day Camp

The picture above shows participants in the recent Day Camp conducted by the Tri-City Community Club (formerly the Girl's Club). The camp was under the direction of Miss Grace Gordon who was assisted by Miss Louise Long. The Day Camp was a part of the club's summer recreation program for girls.

Games, songs, crafts, storytelling, homemaking practice, movies, and swimming at the Leaksville Pool comprised the program.

First row, left to right: Wanda Church, Charlotte Church, Geraldine Craddock, Carol Dehart, Linda Hill, Linda Pulliam, Laura Harris; Second row: Joann Barham, Pandy Price, Betsy Dameron, Carolyn Farmer, Carolyn Nance, Carol Pulliam; Third row: Diane Cook, Freda Cook, Elizabeth Ann Martin, Ann Matthews, Frances Chaney, Myrtle Gravley; Fourth row: Sidney Lattimer, Janice Wall, Jerene Grogan, Martha Alley, Linda Curry.

Personals

Mrs. J. E. Mays of Leaksville was delightfully surprised Sunday when her relatives met at the home of Burton Gallimore in Hillsville, Va. and gave her a dinner. Her brothers present included John, of Oxford, Pa. Oscar of Blue Field, W. Va. and Walter of Welsh, W. Va. Mrs. Mays received many nice gifts.

Attending from Leaksville were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Adams and granddaughter Toni Lynn, Miss Betty Jean Gallimore, Mrs. James Gallimore and son Michael.

Homer Gallimore of the Karastan Weave Room has returned home after spending some time in the Veterans' Hospital in Durham,

Nantucket Notes

by Freda Suit

Returning from vacation today are Doris Brown, Lucile Ziglar and Pauline Litaker. All three girls say they spent most of their time at home.

A belated welcome to Peggy Sapp secretary to Macon P. Miller, replacing Bobbie Dunton who resigned. Peggy formerly worked with Blue Bell in Greensboro.

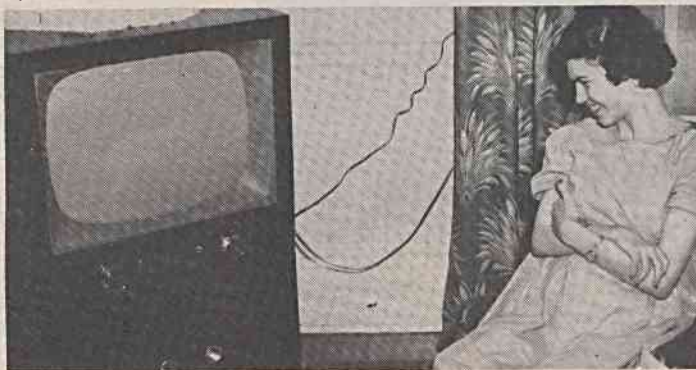

Also welcome to June Comer in the Physical Testing Lab.

J. G. Farrell recently spent two weeks vacation at Virginia Beach.

Bowling season is here again and the Nantucket girls are practicing up. All the "Dappers" practiced on the new alleys at Draper Wednesday.

Employees Give TV Set To Invalid Child

Shown enjoying her new TV set is Myron Dale Clifton, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Clifton of Fieldale. Her father is a weaver at the Towel Mill. Myron Dale, a victim of cerebral palsy, was presented the television set by employees of the Hosiery and Towel Mills.

Hosiery Happings

by Lee Hundley

Mrs. Euna Ferguson attended the wedding of Miss Geraldine Lawson and Mr. Emory Gillispie at Chesterfield, C. last week.

Deannie Joyce who is stationed at Camp Rucker, Ala. spent the Labor Day week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Joyce.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ferguson of Newport News are spending this week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferguson and Mrs. Lera Few.

Miss Viola Turner who has been employed at the mill for the past 3 years will leave Thursday for Ferrum Jr. College where she will further her education.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Webster announced the birth of a son.

Miss Loretta Pruitt and Jean Fulcher will leave Monday to enroll as Freshmen at Radford College.

Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor of Roanoke visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Looney spent the week at Myrtle Beach.

Mrs. Joe Martin of Gibsonville, N. C. visited relatives here over the week-end.

Cpl. Hewlus, Martin former employee of the Hosiery Mill, Knitting Dept., has just returned from Germany. He received his discharge at Fort Meade, American industrial research carried on by 300 laboratories with 900 employees in 1920, the Committee on Economic Development finds. Twenty years later there were 2200 laboratories.

Small incomes have increased considerably greater percentages than large incomes since 1935, according to a report published by the Committee for Economic Development.

Hosiery Employee At Camp Gordon

Pvt. Thomas H. Harris, 19, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Harris of Roanoke No. 3, Martinsville, Va., entered the Army June 18, 1953 and is receiving his basic training at Camp Gordon, Ga.

Before entering military service, Pvt. Harris was employed at the Towel Mill in Fieldale. He would like to hear from his friends back home. His address follows:

Pvt. Thomas H. Harris
R.A. 13449788 Co. F.
MPRTC 8801 ITSU
Box 93, Plat. 2
Camp Gordon

