

PICTURE STORY—

50-Year Man Blackburn Shown At Home And At Work

ON JOB at Synthetic Fabrics Mill, he is exceptionally good loomfixer.

WELL-LIKED in the department, he is shown with weaver, Dentrail Earles.

AT WORKBENCH, he enjoys chat with Jesse W. Griggs, weaving foreman.

HE LOVES AUTOS, takes excellent care of his own (a Chevrolet).

A CIGAR, a good chair and magazine bring relaxation in the evening.

AN EXPERT WORKMAN, he has own shop and spends much time there.

ANOTHER JOY at home is when Billy Hopkins, only grandchild, visits.

FAMILY GROUP—daughter, Mrs. Ernest Hopkins; Mrs. Blackburn (holding grandson); Mr. Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Blackburn, Jr., and Ernest Hopkins.
