

Meet In Korea

Shown are two Draper boys who met recently in Korea. They are A/2C Bobby "Gene" Ray, left, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ray, of 106 Main street, Draper, and A/2C Robert "Link" Higgins, son of Mrs. Alice Higgins, 430 W. Carolina avenue, Draper.

Both entered the Air Force together in October 1952, and took basic training at Sampson AFB, New York. After completing basic, they were separated, but kept in touch with each other through letters.

In June 1954 Gene was sent to Korea, and in August of the same year, Link also went to Korea. In writing, they found they were 60 miles apart, and one Sunday "Link" was pleasantly surprised with a visit from Gene.

Proposal Custom

In the seventeenth century in the Baltic states, a girl could propose to a bashful youth by baking a loaf of bread and sending it to him. There was just one catch—a girl had to produce a witness who could testify that her intended bridegroom received the loaf while it was still warm.
