

Fieldcrest

FASHIONS FOR BED AND BATH

MILL WHISTLE

Ernest W. Sams

George S. Brandon

Robert H. Hair

Three New Men Take Positions In Company

Three new appointments in the manufacturing organization have been announced by the Company. Two of the new men joining Fieldcrest September 1 are replacements and the third is in a new position.

Ernest W. Sams

Ernest W. Sams was named the company's first traffic manager, reporting to S. R. Fifield, vice president in charge of purchasing. Mr. Sams formerly was traffic manager for the American and Eford Mills at Mt. Holly. He earlier was associated with the Aker's Motor Lines, Gastonia, as assistant traffic manager, and with the Southern Motor Carriers Rate Conference, Atlanta, Ga., as a compilation clerk assisting in the publication of tariffs for motor carriers.

He is a native of Tennessee and graduated from the University of Tennessee with a B. S. degree in traffic and transportation. He served with the Navy hospital corps in World War II.

Robert H. Hair

Robert H. Hair joined the comptroller's department assigned to accounting methods and procedures, replacing W. C. Spaugh who resigned to take a position elsewhere. Mr. Hair formerly was with Procter & Gamble Company in Kansas City, Mo., and Cincinnati, Ohio, in industrial engineering and cost control work.

He is a native of Gastonia and a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Mass., where he majored in chemical engineering and business administration and received his B. S. degree in 1949. He has just returned from four years of service as an officer in the Air Force.

George S. Brandon

George S. Brandon was appointed cotton receiver, replacing the late W. E. Tucker. Mr. Brandon comes to Fieldcrest from M. Lowenstein & Sons, Anderson, S. C. where he was cotton classifier for the past seven years. He previously worked with cotton shippers in Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi. Mr. Brandon grew up in Texas and attended East Texas Baptist College, Marshall, Texas, majoring in business administration. He served in the Army for three years during the second World War.

25-Year Picnic Set For Saturday

A large attendance is expected at the Fieldcrest 25-Year Club picnic in Morehead Stadium Saturday afternoon, September 15, starting at 4:00 o'clock. Reports indicate wide interest among the 907 employees eligible to attend.

Committees which have been at work for several weeks on arrangements for the event state that this year's outing will offer the greatest variety of entertainment in the club's history. Music, prizes, games, stunts and other recreation have been planned in abundance.

President Harold W. Whitcomb will present greetings and remarks and is expected to review the progress made by the Company during the last few years and to outline some of the plans for the future.

A 21-inch television set will be given as a grand attendance prize. Another large prize will be given in a guessing game in addition to several more attendance prizes.

The "Wheels", rock and roll band from Leaksville and the "South Chords" prize-winning barber shop quartet from Danville, Va., will provide music. Staff members of Consolidated Central Y.M.C.A. will have charge of games and stunts.

Vice-President R. A. Harris will be master of ceremonies during the program in which other Fieldcrest officials will take part. Officers of the Company and other guests have been invited.

Carolina Council Makes Plans For Coming Year

The Carolina Cooperative Council will hold its first meeting of the new Council year Thursday evening, October 18, at 7:30 o'clock in the Consolidated Central Y.M.C.A. A large attendance is expected for the program which will present a talk by C. S. Reed, vice president of Duke Power Company, Charlotte.

Four Meetings This Year

The Council's executive committee met recently and voted to hold four meetings during the coming year as permitted by the by-laws as amended in October, 1955. The Council formerly met nine times each year, September through May.

The Christmas program this year will be held in the Leaksville-Spray junior high school auditorium Saturday afternoon and evening, December 15. Details of this meeting are to be announced later.

Management reports by President Harold W. Whitcomb and Vice President R. A. Harris will be heard at a joint meeting of the senior and junior councils Thursday evening, January 24, 1957, at Consolidated Central Y.M.C.A.