

THE MILL WHISTLE

Fieldcrest
FASHIONS FOR BED AND BATH

Karastan
AMERICA'S FINEST POWER LOOMED RUG

Published by Fieldcrest Mills, Inc. - Plants located in Spray, Draper and Leaksville, N. C. and Fieldale, Va.

VOL. XV

Spray, N. C., Monday, April 15, 1957

NUMBER 20

CHARLES E. CULLEN
... will discuss human relations
in today's world

Plants And Offices Will Observe Easter Holiday

All plants and offices of Fieldcrest Mills will be closed on Monday, April 22, because of the Easter holiday.

In mills or departments on a five-day week schedule and in which there is a third shift, the third shift will not work Monday night, but employees will report at the usual time Tuesday night, April 23. In mills on a six-day week schedule, the third shift will start up on Monday night, April 22, at 11:00 p.m.

Payroll checks for the week ending April 21 will be distributed in all mills on Friday, April 26.

Easter Thought

As we approach the holiday, Fieldcrest Chaplain J. K. McConnell calls our attention to the following scripture passage as an appropriate reminder of the Easter message:

"Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live."

—John 11:25.

Council Closes Program Year With Charles Cullen As Guest Speaker

Junior Council Elects M. Brame President

Martha Brame of the Tabulating Department was elected president of the Junior Carolina Council at a meeting of that organization in the Central YMCA last week.

Other officers elected for the new year were Hilda Grogan, vice president; Betty Webster, secretary-treasurer; Margaret Crane, assistant secretary-treasurer; Lois Gillie, sergeant at arms; Lois Norman, assistant sergeant at arms; Betty Dyer, song leader; and Marvel Shockley, pianist.

The new committee chairmen are: Nellie Gallaher, program; Geneva Lawson attendance; Ollie Willis, refreshment and entertainment; Helen Robertson, constitution.

Irene Squires was the winner of the prize, $50 bond, in a drawing of names from among the Council members with perfect attendance.

A musical program was presented by Mamie Link and Harold Squires.

(Continued on Page Five)

Charles E. Cullen, of Charlotte, will be the speaker at the Carolina Co-operative Council's final meeting of the program year. The meeting will be at the Consolidated Central Y.M.C.A. at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, April 25.

Mr. Cullen is rated one of the best speakers in America. As head of an organization of business consultants specializing in sales and leadership training, he has trained thousands of men and women in the past few years. His topic here will be "Eternal Fury" which will be concerned with the adjusting of human relations to today's fast pace.

He comes to the Council highly recommended as a man who offers "inspirational and humorous enthusiasm at its best" and who can provide "fun with a definite purpose." He is in great demand as a speaker for conventions, banquets, ladies night programs, etc. During the past seven years he has spoken to over 500 regional, state and national conventions. He is a member of the speakers bureau for

(Continued on Page Four)

Little Cars Make A Big Hobby

BIG MEN, LITTLE RACERS—Sanford Hyler, left, and James Wade, Blanket Mill loomfixers, built these small race cars which they race on Sunday afternoons at a track near Draper. See page eight for more pictures of micro midget racing.