

THE MILL WHISTLE

Fieldcrest
FASHIONS FOR BED AND BATH

Karastan
AMERICA'S FINEST POWER LOOMED RUG

Published by Fieldcrest Mills, Inc. • Plants located in Spray, Draper and Leaksville, N. C. and Fieldale, Va.

Vol. XVII

Spray, N. C., Monday, October 6, 1958

NUMBER 7

Day's Pay Asked In Fund Campaign

Community Fund Drive To Be Concluded At Mills This Week

Fieldcresters this week are engaged in a campaign to raise their share of the $36,790.74 budget of the Tri-City Community Fund. Solicitations in the mills began last Wednesday and are expected to be concluded by next Friday.

The community-wide goal of $36,790.74 represents the minimum amount needed for the continued operation of eight worthy health, welfare, and recreational agencies serving local people. The budget covers operation of the agencies for the remaining two months of 1958 and the full 12 months of 1959.

C. J. Frank, director of industrial relations, is chairman of the campaign at Fieldcrest. As in the past, the superintendents are in charge of the drive at their respective mills. A canvass is being made in each department, offering every employee an opportunity to share in the campaign.

The suggested schedule of giving at Fieldcrest and elsewhere is one day's (Continued on page five)

BOY SCOUTS' GOOD TURN—Local Boy Scouts will distribute thousands of Civil Defense booklets to homes in the Tri-Cities Saturday, October 11, as part of a nation-wide project. Shown with copies of the "Handbook for Emergencies" booklet are Cub Scout Charles Martin and Boy Scout Frankie Setliff, of Troop 86. On back row are George Aheron, commissioner for the scouts' Dan River district, and Clarence Martin, scoutmaster of Troop 86, sponsored by First Methodist Church, Draper.

Council Meeting Set For Oct. 16

W. C. (Dan) Daniel To Speak; Officers For Coming Year Will Be Installed

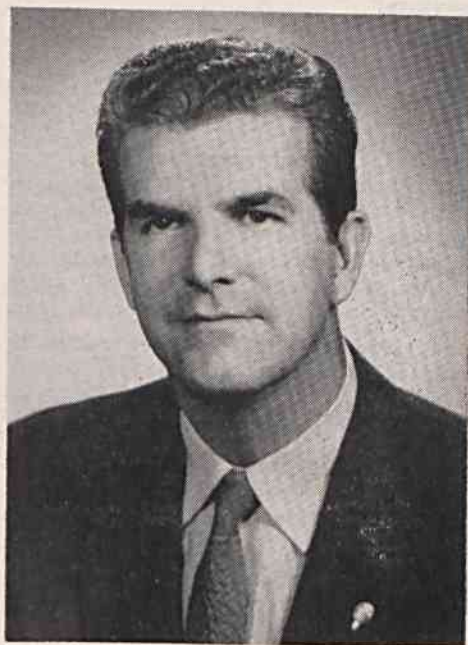

W. C. (Dan) Daniel, assistant to the president of Dan River Mills and past national commander of the American Legion, will address the Carolina Co-operative Council Thursday evening, October 16, at 7:30 o'clock at Consolidated Central Y. M. C. A.

With this meeting, the council will open its 38th year. Officers to be installed are F. W. Klein, president; W. B. Lucas, vice president; Otis Marlowe, secretary; and Carl Hall, assistant secretary. New committee chairmen are

D. E. Simons, program; Frank Barron, attendance; Guerrant Norman, arrangements; and John Eggleston, constitution.

Mr. Daniel, who represented his company in the congressional hearings on the textile imports problem, is expected to discuss low-wage foreign competition and the effect of cheap imports on American textile mills.

He is a native of Chatham, Virginia, and has been associated with Dan River since 1939. He started as an hourly employee in the company's Riverside Division. Following his discharge from the Navy during World War II, he became associated with Dan River's em- (Continued on page five)

W. C. (DAN) DANIEL