

THE MILL WHISTLE

Fieldcrest
FASHIONS FOR BED AND BATH

Karastan
AMERICA'S FINEST POWER LOOMED RUG

Published by Fieldcrest Mills, Inc. • Plants located in Spray, Draper and Leaksville, N. C. and Fieldale, Va.

VOL. XVII

Spray, N. C., Monday, May 18, 1959

NO. 22

Central Warehouse Wins Safety Awards

Mill Attains Million Man-Hours; Employees Get Barbecue Dinner For Accident-Free Record In '58

Employees of the Central Warehouse have worked over a million man-hours without a disabling injury. In recognition of their outstanding performance, they won three safety awards which were presented at the mill last week.

For having attained a million-man-hour record since the last lost-time accident on September 27, 1956, the Central Warehouse received the National Safety Council's Award of Merit. The mill was awarded a Certificate of Merit by the North Carolina Industrial Commission on the basis of its 1958 record and received a second-year ribbon from the North Carolina Department of Labor for having operated the entire year of 1958 without a disabling injury.

As an award from the Company for
(Continued on page eight)

Pictures of Central Warehouse barbecue appear on pages four and five.

Virginia Governor J. Lindsay Almond Jr., and the First Lady admire Fieldcrest towel shown by D. A. Purcell, Towel Mill manager.

Fieldcrest Towels In Governor's Mansion

The Governor's Mansion in Richmond, Va. uses towels made in Fieldale, Va. by Fieldcrest Mills, Inc. Bath linens in the executive mansion are Fieldcrest's Royal Velvet in white, blue, pink and green. One specially-made ensemble consists of white towels appliqued and embroidered with a cardinal, Virginia's State bird, perched on a branch of dogwood, the State flower.

Above, Gov. and Mrs. J. Lindsay Almond, Jr. admire one of the towels shown by D. A. Purcell, manager of the Towel Mill. The First Lady described the towels as "the most beautiful I have ever seen." She added that she is well acquainted with Royal Velvet towels, having used them in her home in Roanoke, Va., before moving to the Governor's Mansion.

Vacation Schedule Is Announced For Mills

All mills will close for vacation at the end of the second shift Friday, June 26, and will resume operations at 7:00 a. m. Monday, July 6, except the third shift which will begin operations at 11:00 p. m. Sunday, July 5.

If there are any exceptions to this schedule, the employees affected will be notified by the mill management.

Vacation pay will be issued on the regular pay days during the week beginning June 22. Pay checks for the week ending June 28 will be distributed in the regular manner on Monday morning, July 6.

All offices will be closed during the mills' vacation period except the Personnel Office which will remain open on a limited basis.

'Miss Junior High'

Brenda Collins was chosen "Miss Draper Junior High School" in a beauty pageant sponsored by the Draper Lions Club. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Collins. Her father is employed at the Blanket Mill.