New Names Added To Blanket Quality List

Two new names were added to the Blanket Mill's quality honor list for the six months ending February 29. They were: Buford Bateman, jacquard weaver; and Lala Stultz, in the plain or dobbie classification.

In order to make the quality honor list, a weaver must work for six months without his or her cloth having a major quality defect.

Names of the quality weavers are posted on the weave room bulletin board each month and are published in The Mill Whistle.

When a weaver on the list has a major

Plays For Indians

Melvin H. Barnes, 18, who has completed his first season with the Cleveland Indians in North Platte, Nebraska, will rejoin the Indians March 23 for Spring training in Florida.

The young baseball player is the son of Mrs. Mamie Barnes, Rt. 2, Ridgeway, Va., who works in the Channel Blanket Department at the Finishing Mill. He was a first string player in the center-field position and plans to make baseball his career.

Melvin is a 1959 graduate of Drewry Mason High School where he earned letters in baseball, football and basketball. He signed a contract with the Indians soon after his graduation.

At Drewry Mason he was a member of the Monogram Club and several other school organizations.
