

O'Neal To Join Co. In Industrial Relations

James B. O'Neal will join Fieldcrest August 15 as an area industrial relations representative and after a period of training will be assigned to the Blanket and Sheeting Mills. He is to replace Melvin Moore, who was promoted to superintendent of the Karastan Spinning Division at Greenville.

Mr. O'Neal is a native of Durham and was graduated from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, with an A. B. degree in 1951. He received his master's degree in personnel administration at Chapel Hill in 1957. He served in the Army from July, 1951, until August, 1953, when he was released from active duty as a second lieutenant.

From July, 1959, until the present he has been employed by the North Carolina State Personnel Department in Raleigh. He earlier was with the Bureau of Public Administration, Charlottesville, Va., in government research and while studying for his master's degree was a graduate assistant at the Institute of Government at Chapel Hill.

He is married to the former Miss Jean Grubb, of Perry, Ga. They have three children, ages three years, two, and eight months. Mr. O'Neal plans to move his family here around September 1.

Rug Loom 57 Wins Housekeeping Award

Rug Loom No. 57 won the Karastan Weave Room Housekeeping Award for July. Weavers on the loom are J. P. Hall, John Pratt, and Otis Turner.

An attractive certificate has been placed on the loom in recognition of the outstanding housekeeping and will remain on the loom throughout the month of August.

The Karastan Mill awards a certificate each month to weavers on the loom which has the highest total points in four housekeeping inspections made by the supervisors.

Fieldcrest Mills, Inc. Ranks 12th In Size In N. C. Industry

Fieldcrest Mills, Inc., is in 12th place in a list of the 100 largest manufacturing concerns in North Carolina, according to an article in the Employment Security Commission Quarterly magazine. This comparison was based on number of employees.

- |                                |  |
|--------------------------------|--|
| 1. Burlington Industries, Inc. | 12. Fieldcrest Mills, Inc.               |
| 2. Cannon Mills Co.            | 13. The Champion Paper & Fiber Co., Inc. |
| 3. R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.  | 14. Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.          |
| 4. Western Electric Co., Inc.  | 15. Kayser-Roth Corp.                    |
| 5. Cone Mills Corp.            | 16. Klopman Mills, Inc.                  |
| 6. J. P. Stevens Co., Inc.     | 17. P. Lorillard Co., Inc.               |
| 7. The Erwin Tobacco Co.       | 18. E. I. DuPont De Nemours & Co., Inc.  |
| 8. The Erwin Mills, Inc.       | 19. American & Efird Mills, Inc.         |
| 9. American Enka Corp.         | 20. Drexel Furniture Co.                 |
| 10. Hanes Hosiery Mills Co.    |  |
| 11. P. H. Hanes Knitting Co.   |  |

Long-Service Employees Receive Awards

ROBERT N. SHIVELY

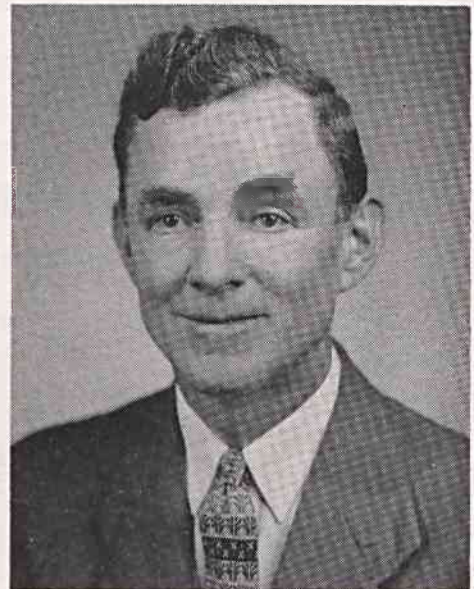

August is a month of important service anniversaries for three Fieldcresters at three different mills.

Robert Neal Shively, of the Bedspread Mill, completed 45 years of continuous service on Tuesday, August 1.

James Clifford McDaniel, of the Blanket Mill, completed 40 years on August 10, and William Clyde Fulcher, of the Finishing Mill, is to complete 40 years on August 15.

Mr. Shively and Mr. McDaniel were honored in informal ceremonies on their anniversary dates. Each was presented with the Fieldcrest diamond-and-gold service emblem, a gift, and a letter of commendation from President Harold W. Whitcomb. Mr. Fulcher is to receive awards this week.

Mr. Shively, a native of Franklin County, Va., has continuous service since

WILLIAM C. FULCHER

August 1, 1916, when he was employed as a weaver learner at the Blanket Mill. He was a weaver at the Blanket Mill until 1929 and since that time has been a weaver at the Bedspread Mill.

Mr. McDaniel was born in Roanoke County, Va., and has worked in the Wool Carding Department at the Blanket Mill continuously since August 10, 1921. He has operated various jobs in the department but has been a fixer for most of his 40 years.

Mr. Fulcher came from Patrick County, Va., and has continuous service since August 15, 1921. He worked on various jobs in the Sample Department at the Finishing Mill and was promoted to assistant foreman in 1944. He was in the Folding Department 1950-56 and since 1956 has been a second hand in the Blanket Sewing Department.