Texas Style

Making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Dean, a son, Clinton, Melvin Holliman of the Bedspread Finishing Mill, and Tom Meadows.

They toured several states on their way to visit Lt. Col. Frank Haizlip, in Alamogordo, New Mexico, and the Deans' son, Corporal Robert S. Dean, who is in the Air Force at Tucson, Arizona. They also visited Mr. Dean's nephew, Curtis Hensley, and his family in Monroe, La.

Mr. Dean is a cutter in the Blanket Cutting and Sewing Department at the Finishing Mill. He has over 36 years of continuous service and has never had a lost-time accident.

Honored For Music

Margaret Gibson, who plays a baritone horn with the Reidsville Salvation Army Band, was awarded the Camp York Beginner Soloist Trophy for her performance of Brahms' Lullaby at the annual camp concert at Kings Mountain.

The trophy, a gold mountain of musical symbols, was presented by Salvation Army Captain Howard Whitehead of Charlotte.

Miss Gibson has played in the Salvation Army Band for the past two years, and has three brothers who play in the band. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norris Gibson of Reidsville. Mr. Gibson is employed in the Carding Department at the Sheeting Mill.

17 Blanket Weavers Make Quality Honor List

Seventeen Blanket Mill weavers appear on the quality honor list for the six months ending July 31. Of this number, 13 are in the plain or dobby group and four are in the jacquard classification.

The listing of the quality weavers is part of a program at the Blanket Mill designed to emphasize the importance of quality weaving and to give recognition for outstanding records.

In order to make the quality honor list, a weaver must work for six months without a major quality defect.

specting Department for many years before retiring under the Pension Plan.

John would like to have letters from his friends back home. His address is John H. Boyd SR 5481618, Co. 267, Recruit Training Command, Great Lakes, Illinois.

When a weaver on the list has a major quality defect, his name is dropped. Other weavers are added as they attain six months of quality work.
