

Bedspread Mill Group Studies Loomfixing

Members of class in loomfixing on bedspread looms receive instruction from J. H. Crowder, Jr. From left to right are Larry Rhodes, Mr. Crowder, Robert Hutson and Robert Tate.

Men in this group pay close attention as James Gallimore explains point about a loom setting. From left, Aaron Robertson, Gene Inman, Mr. Gallimore, Dewey Gauldin, Jr.

Smithfield Employee Is Beauty Runner-Up

Evelyn Rose Benson, a blanket boxer at the Automatic Blanket Plant, Smithfield, was a runner-up to "Miss Bright Leaf of 1961," in a beauty contest sponsored by the merchants in connection with the opening of the Smithfield tobacco market.

She represented Ingrams Township and was in third place for the "Miss Bright Leaf" title, won by Miss Brenda Faye Massengill.

Miss Benson, who lives at Rt. 1, Four Oaks, was employed at the Automatic Blanket Plant in June of this year. She is engaged to be married to another Fieldcrest, Linwood Lassiter, quality technician in the Quality Control Laboratory at the Automatic Blanket Plant in Smithfield.

Henry Crowder, James Gallimore Are Instructors For Course Now Nearing Completion

A course in loom fixing on bedspread looms is nearing completion with J. H. Crowder, Jr., assistant foreman at the Bedspread Mill, and James Gallimore, head loomfixer, as instructors.

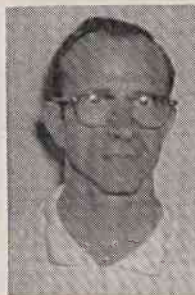

Five weave room employees of the Bedspread Mill are enrolled for the course. Also attending is Gene Inman, management trainee at the Blanket Mill.

Facilities of the new training room at the Blanket Mill are being used for the course. Classes meet three evenings each week. The men are attending on their own time.

The course was arranged by the Bedspread Mill with assistance from the Fieldcrest Training Department.

Instruction is given by means of demonstrations for the entire class, followed by individual practice in the setting of loom motions.

Bodnar Has Big Night In Nye-Wait Softball

Mike Bodnar

Bodnar (shown in picture) retired 14 batters in succession at one point in the game and wound up with a three-hitter for the evening.

The Nye - Wait Company, Inc., softball team, which plays in the Auburn, N. Y., City League, won a victory from a very strong team known as the Utopia Club of Auburn at the "Y" Field recently. Chuck Mapley, of the Production Department, clouted a four - bagger. Mike

Stultz Children

Kathy, 2½ years old, Sonah, nine months old, and Michael, 4½ years old, are children of Mr. and Mrs. James Stultz. Father is employed in the Bedspread Weaving Department. One grandmother, Edna Stultz, works in Sheeting Spooling, and the other grandmother, Catherine Gauldin Weddle, is employed in the Spinning Department at the Sheeting Mill.

Buy-Sell-Swap

FOR SALE: One mule with harness, plows and other equipment. Also one store showcase and scales. George Snow, 1200 Morgan Street, Spray, Telephone MAin 3-7924.

FOR SALE: Have wife — motorcycle must travel! Will sell 1947 model 74-cubic inch Indian, licensed and ready. See Jack Baker, 400 West Fieldcrest Road, Draper.

FOR SALE: Conn clarinet. Good condition, reasonably priced. See Linda Tilley Price, at Towel Mill, or telephone ORange 3-4131.

THE MILL WHISTLE