

During tour of mill, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Bingham and daughter, Pat, stop to observe work of Vivian Shough, an inspector-folder. Mr. Bingham is a Burns guard at the Finishing Mill.

With Phil Brown (pointing), an assistant foreman, as guide group tours the Packaging Department. Visitors, from left, are Mrs. Lowell Price, Mrs. Carlton Price and Lowell Price, all of Stoneville.

Open house visitors signing up for attendance prizes here are, from left to right, Rudolph Light, Mrs. Beulah H. Ball, Mrs. Frank Farley, Jacksonville, Florida; Sylvia Ball and Mr. Farley.

Pauline Hopkins, a scalloper on the second shift, demonstrates the operation for Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Kendrick and daughter. Mrs. Kendrick (Elaine) is a clerk in the Fieldcrest Canteen office.

Observing work of Margaret Almond, inspector-checker, are Edan Hopper, her daughter, Vicki; and Bonnie Hopper, whose mother, Mary Hopper, works at other end of table but is not shown.

Operator here is Vera S. Dalton, an inspector-folder, while visitors are Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Odell and Brenda Angle (right foreground). Mrs. Odell (Earsley) works at the Central Warehouse.