

Big Crowd Attends Children's Party At Fieldale

Entertainment in the Fieldale High School auditorium for children of Towel Mill employees opened with stunts by Renee and Jim, comic acrobats. They are shown as they performed one of their ladder acts which were greatly enjoyed.

Antics by the Daring Chimps delighted the youngsters. Renee Daring is shown here with one of the chimpanzees.

A large crowd of children and adults attended the Christmas party for the children of employees of the Towel Mill in the Fieldale High School auditorium at Fieldale, Va., Saturday, December 15.

D. A. Purcell, manager of the Towel Mill, was master of ceremonies and called on the Rev. E. J. Nottingham, pastor of Fieldale Methodist Church, for the invocation.

He next presented Robert A. Harris, of Spray, N. C., vice president in charge of manufacturing, Fieldcrest Mills, Inc., who brought greetings from the management of the company.

Entertainment was by Renee and Jim, comic acrobats in a high ladder balancing act, Alex Houston with Elmer, a ventriloquist act, and the Daring Chimps, a chimpanzee act. Each part of the show seemed to be greatly enjoyed by young and old alike.

Santa Claus was assisted by the Towel Mill supervisors in distributing treats to all of the children attending.

At Towel Mill children's party, expressions on the faces of the youngsters show their obvious enjoyment. Adults accompanying small children also enjoyed show.

Kimberly Joyce

Pictured here is Kimberly Layne Joyce, daughter of A/1c and Mrs. Wade Joyce of Lithopolis, Ohio. Kim's grandparents are the Rev. and Mrs. J. K. McConnell and Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Joyce. Mr. McConnell is industrial chaplain at Fieldcrest and Mr.

Joyce is assistant foreman in the Wind-ing Department at the Bedspread Mill. Mrs. Joyce (Maggie) is employed in the Setting Department at the Karastan Mill.

Supervisors, other Towel Mill officials helped distribute Christmas stockings.

Santa Claus greeted the children at end of party. Here, he meets a friend.