

Two Are Transferred To Muscogee Mills

Dunton Is Purchasing Agent And Fuller Cost Supervisor For Newly-Acquired Plant

Benjamin F. Dunton, formerly assistant purchasing agent at Spray, and R. Mestern Fuller, Jr., formerly supervisor of mill accounting for the Spray area mills, have been transferred to Muscogee Mills in Columbus, Ga., following the purchase of Muscogee by Fieldcrest Mills, Inc.

Mr. Dunton assumed his duties in Columbus Monday, August 5, as purchasing agent for Muscogee Mills. Mr. Fuller began August 5 as supervisor of mill accounting at Muscogee.

A native of Port Chester, N. Y., Mr. Dunton attended Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute at Troy, N. Y. He was an officer in the Army Signal Corps during World War II and joined Fieldcrest Mills upon his separation from military service in 1946.

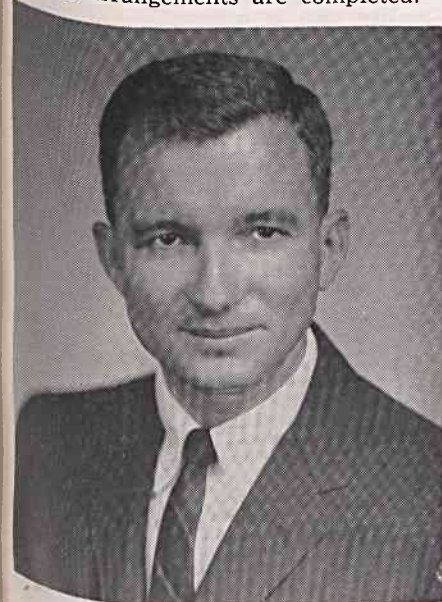

Worked In Engineering Department

He first was employed in the Engineering Department as a safety engineer engaged in making plant safety and fire inspections. He was transferred to the Purchasing Department in 1949 and in January 1952 was promoted to assistant purchasing agent.

Mr. Fuller is a native of Leaksville and a graduate of National Business College in Roanoke, Va. He first joined the company in the Comptroller's Department in 1945. He worked for a time as an assistant cost accountant in the Cost Department offices at Draper and Spray.

He was promoted to supervisor of mill accounting for the Spray area mills January 1, 1957, and continued to serve in that capacity until he was transferred to Muscogee.

Mr. Dunton and Mr. Fuller will move their families to Columbus as soon as housing arrangements are completed.

R. MASTERN FULLER JR.

SVERRE K. STRANGER

WILLIE A. BERRY

Stranger, Berry Complete 40 Yrs.

July, 1963, marked the completion of 40-year records with the company for Sverre K. Stranger, of the Fieldcrest sales division, and Willie A. Berry, of the Napping Department at the Finishing Mill.

Mr. Stranger, who attained 40 years of continuous service July 26, was presented his 40-year service pin by Arthur S. Thompson, vice president-sales of the Fieldcrest sales division. The presentation was made early at the Los Angeles sales meeting since Mr. Stranger was not to be in New York until after the anniversary date.

Mr. Berry was visited at the mill on his anniversary date by President Harold W. Whitcomb and was presented with his 40-year service pin. Both Mr. Stranger and Mr. Berry received letters of commendation from President Whitcomb.

Born in Oslo, Norway, Mr. Stranger started with the Marshall Field & Conpany wholesale division in Chicago in 1923. He was with the Zion lace curtain division and his first selling job was as city and suburban salesman in Chicago. He later started traveling on the road in Indiana and Ohio.

Mr. Stranger was in military service during World War II and after his return was assigned a territory covering 11 central and southwestern states. While traveling the Southwest he lived in St. Louis a part of the time.

When the Zion Lace Curtain Mill was closed in 1952, Mr. Stranger was transferred to the Fieldcrest sales division. He was assigned to northern California to develop accounts and sell directly in the smaller towns of the area. His territory has since been enlarged to include Nevada. He makes his home in San Bruno, California.

Mr. Berry, a native of Stokes county, began his career with the company in 1921 but left to return to the farm. He was re-employed July 31, 1923, and has continuous service since that date. He has worked in the Napping Department at the Finishing Mill during the entire time. He was a napper operator from 1923 until 1936, except for one year when he served in the Army.

He was an assistant foreman in the Napping Department for 14 years and worked six years as a second hand-finisher. He has been employed as a Gessner napper operator since 1956.

BENJAMIN F. DUNTON

Greenville Leaders

Winners of the highest production awards at the Karastan Spinning Division in Greenville for the month of July were:

- Carding Wayland Hardee
- Spinning Hazel Lockamy
- Margaret Smith
- Twisting Elizabeth Teel
- Reeling Rose Tripp