ROBERT MYRICK
... Employee's Son ...

Students Make Excellent Records

Brenda Anne Martin, above, left, is daughter of Lucinda Sumner, of the Accounting Department at the General Offices. Brenda, a senior at Morehead High School, is active in school affairs, treasurer of her home room and is a second-year business student.

At right above is Mrs. William E. Tate, of Statesville, who is the former Glenda Cooke, daughter of Louise Cook, also of the Accounting Department. Glenda is a junior and an honor student at Statesville High School and will graduate with this year's class. She plans to enter college next fall. Her husband is a sophomore at Mitchell College in Statesville.

Glenda attended Morehead High School until her marriage in June 1963. She was president of the student council and was voted the most outstanding student by the Danforth Foundation. She was a member of the Honor Society, Math Club, Future Teachers and the Literary Society. She also was winner of two science awards, was in the glee club for three years and was a cheerleader for two years.

Catches Carp

Andrew Collins, Fieldcrest retiree, and grandson, Jerry Collins, who often go fishing together, show carp caught recently weighing four and one-half and two and one-half pounds. Jerry caught the carp when they were fishing in a private pond in the county.

Mr. Collins was an overhauler-spindle plumber at the Bedsread Mill before he took early retirement in May 1962. A veteran of approximately 50 years in the textile industry, he was a section man and an overhauler-spindle plumber in the Bedsread Mill Spinning Department for 44 years without being off of the payroll for any reason after he started to work in 1918.

Myrick Wins Berth On All-Conference Team

The son of a Smithfield employee has been placed on the Capital Area Class AA all-conference grid team for 1963 as selected by the participating coaches. He is Robert Myrick, a lineman on the football team and an honor student at Smithfield High School.

Robert's mother, Juanita Byrd, is an order control clerk in the General Office at the Automatic Blanket Plant, where she has been employed since August, 1960.
