

New Names Appear On Towel Quality List

Several new names appear on the Towel Mill's list of outstanding weavers and loomfixers, indicating keen competition for the designation as "top" operators.

The "Weavers of the Week" are those with the lowest per cent of seconds with respect to the standards for the various loom groups.

The "top" fixers are determined through a combination of low seconds and high loom efficiency.

Weavers—W/E December 15
 Bobby Terry ..... Oscar Snider
 Jacquard Terry ..... John Whitlock
 Draper & Cam ..... Levi Carter
 New C-7 Looms ..... Harry Kennett
 (in Hosiery Mill building)

Fixers—W/E December 15
 Bobby Terry ..... William Martin
 Jacquard Terry ..... Woodman Allen
 Draper & Cam ..... Claude Austin, Jr.
 New C-7 Looms ..... Booker Dalton

Weavers—W/E December 8
 Bobby Terry ..... Oscar Snider
 Jacquard Terry ..... Douglas Hundley
 Draper & Cam ..... Ralph Ballard
 New C-7 Looms ..... Harry Kennett

Fixers—W/E December 8
 Bobby Terry ..... Melvin Woodward
 Jacquard Terry ..... J. D. Handy
 Draper & Cam ..... Thurman Watson
 New C-7 Looms ..... Booker Dalton

Promoted

Malcolm E. Walker was promoted to assistant foreman on the second shift in the Blanket Packing and Blanket Stock departments at Central Warehouse, effective January 1.

He is a 1963 graduate of Western Carolina College with a B. S. degree in business administration and was employed as a trainee at Central Warehouse in July. He is a Draper native and worked at various Fieldcrest plants in the summers between school years.

Stiles R. Fifield Dies After Illness

Fieldcrest Vice President Was Prominent In Cotton Trade For Over 25 Years.

Sadness was felt throughout the Fieldcrest organization when Stiles Rich Fifield, vice president-purchasing, died at his home in Greensboro December 23, after a long illness.

Mr. Fifield had been with Fieldcrest since April 1953, when he was appointed director of raw materials purchasing. He was promoted to vice president-purchasing in July 1955, in charge of raw materials and supply purchasing, traffic, and the local Fieldcrest Store.

With a background of experience in the textile industry, he was prominent in the cotton trade for over 25 years. He was vice chairman of the cotton committee of the North Carolina Textile Manufacturers Association and past chairman of the association's cotton buyers and classers division. He was an NCTMA delegate to the National Cotton Council.

He was born in Adams, Massachusetts, August 9, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Fifield. He grew up in Welland, Ontario, Canada, and was connected with the Woods Manufacturing Company, a textile manufacturer in Welland, for 3½ years.

From 1937 until 1953 he was associated with cotton merchants in Memphis, Tennessee, as cotton classer with Geo. H. McFadden & Bro., as assistant manager of J. A. Baker & Co., and from 1946 to 1953 as manager of Volkart Brothers, Inc., Memphis operations. During that period he also managed Volkart's California branch and opened their Mexico buying offices.

Mr. Fifield was a member of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, Greensboro, and was active in the men's club of the church. He was a member of the local Meadow Greens Country Club, the Greensboro Country Club and the new North Carolina Country Club, near Pinehurst.

STILES R. FIFIELD
Vice President-Purchasing

The funeral was conducted at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church Thursday morning, December 26, by the Rev. David Guthrie, acting rector, and the Rev. Peter Robinson, rector of St. Francis Episcopal Church. Burial was in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Mr. Fifield is survived by his wife, the former Helen Parotte; two daughters, Lynn and Guion; two sons, Rich and Barry, all of the home; and his mother, Mrs. Mary Rich Fifield of Welland, Ontario, Canada.

SAFETY SHOE CAMPAIGN — In a campaign emphasizing the use of safety shoes at the Karastan Spinning Division, Greenville, safety shoes were awarded to, from left, Willie Graham, garnett operator; Solomon Williams, blender, and Richard Roebuck of the Wool Carding Department. Presenting shoes at far right is Melvin Moore, plant superintendent.