

Enjoying Safety Barbecue

At safety barbecue given for employees of the Sheet Finishing Mill, first shift Packaging Department group files by tables to pick up plates of barbecue.

Dinner consisted of barbecue, hush puppies, pickles, slaw and peach cobbler. This picture shows some employees from second shift in Sewing Department.

Gregory Minter

Gregory Lee Minter, 6½ months old, is son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Minter. Mother, Brenda, is employed at General Offices. Grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Minter and Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Powell, are employed at the Draper mills. Gregory is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Marion B. Powell, both retired from the Blanket Mill; Mrs. W. O. Marlowe, formerly a Blanket Mill employee; Mrs. Sudie G. Minter; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. Jones. Mr. Jones is a loomfixer at the Blanket Mill.

Join the Fieldcrest Mills Credit Union and watch your weekly savings grow.

MONDAY, MARCH 2, 1964

Loom No. 45 Has Top Housekeeping

Loom No. 45 was winner of the Karastan Weave Room housekeeping award for January. Weavers on the loom are Colonel Evans, George Booker and Garvin Rier-son.

To encourage good housekeeping and to recognize weavers who have done an outstanding house-keeping job, the mill gives a certificate each month on the loom which has the highest total points in four housekeeping inspections made by the weave room super- visors.

The certificate is posted on the loom to call attention to the out- standing housekeeping.

New Reporter

Lucille Alley has been named the Mill Whistle reporter for the Sheet Finishing Mill at Spray. Employees of that mill should pass on to Mrs. Alley their news items and pictures for publication in The Mill Whistle.

The new reporter is a clerk in the superintendent's office at the Sheet Finishing Mill. She was born at High Point and has been employed at the Bleachery and Sheet Finishing Mill for several years. She is married to Thomas Alley, a former Fieldcrest now em- ployed by Mize Motors, Inc. They have one daughter, Martha Alley, a former "Miss Tri-City", now a junior at the University of North Carolina at Greens- boro.

EDITOR'S MAIL

Dear Editor:

Each edition of "The MILL WHIS- TLE" is a signal to me to stop and reflect upon my pleasant years of as- sociation with many fine people in the Leaksville - Spray - Draper area. Gloria and I consider ourselves alumni of the Fieldcrest industries because of our for- mer years of affiliation with this great industrial organization.

In Greenville we have pride in the local Fieldcrest plant as a corporate citizen. I have the pleasant association with Henry F. Morris, plant manager, and J. Melvin Moore, plant superintend- ent, from time to time.

Of course, you know many of our relatives are a part of the Fieldcrest family in the Tri-Cities. That keeping in touch with them is augmented by the news we get in "THE MILL WHISTLE." You keep on doing a good job with this publication.

With every good wish and kindest regards, I remain

Cordially,
JAMES W. BUTLER

(Editor's Note: Mr. Butler was associate editor of THE ARROW, a weekly newspaper started under auspices of the Carolina Cooperative Council and published for several years during the 1920s. He is now director of public rela- tions and extension at East Carolina College, Greenville. His wife, the former Gloria Hailey, was employed at the old General Office during the 1920s.)