

rest Shop, which is devoted to which were recently installed.

Thrift Shop was enlarged and equipped with tiered stock fixtures. Additional space and improved fixtures make it possible to display much larger assortments of merchandise.

spreads and includes two work and bath rugs is at left.

Additional check-out facilities help give better service during peak periods. Traffic moves through the store and customers check out at new exit near parking area.

Store personnel from left, front row, Frances Turner, Lucinda Hyler, Katie Hankins, Mary Clark, Mildred Martin; second row, W. P. Groseclose, manager; Nellie Williams, Marie Cook, Vivian Johnson; back row, John B. Buckner, Jr., assistant manager; Lucille Stephens, Frances Wilson, Anne Marlowe, H. K. Robertson. J. M. Brown is not shown.

Size

products." owners, of which the store re- favorable and highly com- store and Fieldcrest Mills by customers from every Hawaii. It is an everyday other visitors in the area who visit it and make purchases. register showed that the store England, Luxembourg, Brazil, to Rico, and Panama. the store's success, Mr. Grose- announced, Mr. Whitcomb ected to become a showplace the Tri-Cities from a wide true. We appreciate the fine and anticipate that our a steady increase."