

Retired Couples Have 700 Years Of Service

Among the approximately 850 retired employees now drawing pension checks there are a large number of retired couples—husbands and wives both retired and in many instances both with long records in the same mill.
Retired couples living in Fieldale, Ga., assembled on a recent Sunday afternoon and received greetings and congratulations from D. A. Purcell, Towel Mill manager. The combined continuous service of the retirees present totaled nearly 700 years at the Towel Mill.

Mr. Purcell is shown at extreme left in picture, while retired couples, from left to right, are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Dodson, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Hundley, Mr. and Mrs.

W. H. Bray, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Eanes, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Ashburn, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Stultz, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Caudell, and Aubrey S. Hall. Mrs. Hall could not be present.

Safety Bucks' Given at Bedspr. Finishing

Winners of silver dollars in the most recent drawings in the "safety bucks" contest at the Bedsprad Finishing Mill were: Revonda Price, Cutting and Sewing Department; Sherman Brown, Packaging; Itaska Hand, Packaging, Wheeler over, Storage and Shipping; and Michael Wade, Storage and Shipping.

In the safety contest, one "safety buck" is given to each employee. Additional "safety bucks" are given later for commendable safety actions.

The goal is to attain a million man-hours of operation without a disabling injury. The safety bucks contest will continue until a lost-time injury occurs.
When no more safety bucks will be given out until the mill has accumulated 1,000,000 accident-free man-hours.

Wrong Town!

When The Mill whistle reported a wedding anniversary recently for Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Hundley, Towel Mill retirees, it was stated that the couple lived on Marshall Court, Collinsville, Va. This was an error and several Fieldale people called attention to it.
Taking into account the fierce community pride of Fieldale people and affection for the Hundley couple, The Mill Whistle hangs its head in shame and moves the Hundleys back to Marshall Court, Fieldale, after their geographical sojourn in Collinsville.

Muscogee Employee Honored at Retirement

Alma R. Broadwater, a towel cutter and inspector, was presented a silver tray engraved with the dates 1929-1964 upon her retirement after 35 years of service at Muscogee Mills.

The tray was a gift from Mrs. Broad-water's co-workers in the Finishing Department. The presentation was made by Catherine Whatley.

Mrs. Broadwater, a native of Lee County, Alabama, married the late Charlie Broadwater in 1920. She has two daughters, Mrs. Gladys Cress, Fort Hood, Texas, and Mrs. Doris Whiting, Columbus, Georgia, and seven grandchildren. Mrs. Broadwater attends Emanuel Baptist Church, Phenix City, Alabama.
