

Awards Presented Spray Bowlers

Fieldcrest League champions at the Bowling Center, Spray, were the Karastan Standards bowlers, from left, Bob Culler, David Bryan, Cecil Barker, captain; Norman Craig, Tommy Hunt, Jack Morris and Johnny Grogan.

Winners of awards in women's division, shown left to right: Dot Manuel, Karastan Office, high series, 526, and WIBC pin for high series with handicap, 516; Lucy Clark, member of top team, Karastan Office; Betty Hicks, member of top team; Irene Squires, Blanket Mill, high game, 192; Anne Wilson, member of top team; Hilda Martin, member of top team and also high average, 144; Marie Cook, Fieldcrest Store, WIBC award for most improved bowler, 13.9 pins over average for first 21 games.

Other award winners in Men's League were, from left, Roger Joyce, Tuesday morning league, first place team; Milton Gregory, high handicap game, Thursday night; Durwood Moore, first place team, Tuesday morning; Bill Groseclose, high game, Thursday night; Otis Shelton, second place team, Tuesday morning; Jerry Turner, high series, Wednesday night; Paul Blackwell, second place team, Wednesday morning; Jimmy Grogan, high game, Wednesday night; Curtis Cochran, high series, Tuesday morning; Charles Powers, most improved average; Al Puckett, second high average, Wednesday night; Carl Rhodes, high average, Thursday night.

Large Group Retires

(Continued from Page One)

Hughes, of the Finishing Mill, had 44 years and Cynthia R. Sherwood, General Offices, had 43. Retiring with 40 years of unbroken service were Myrtle S. Brown, Finishing Mill; James R. Hampton, Bleachery; Robert C. Hooker, Blanket Mill; and Jesse S. Slaydon, Blanket Mill.

Other retirees having long records of service were Thomas W. Robbins, Bedspread Mill, 39 years; Irva T. Hopkins, Finishing Mill, 35; Thomas A. Watkins, Bedspread Mill, 34; Margie Caldwell, Sheet Mill, 31; and Ruth M. Gentry, Karastan Mill, 31.

In addition to the retirees pictured on page five, the following, for whom pictures were not available at presstime, also retired: Tony Lee Burnette, Bedspread Mill; Clarice R. Edwards, Bedspread Mill; Maybud G. Nance, Bedspread Finishing; Elmer A. Akers, Sanford L. Hopkins, Paul M. Walker and Marvin E. Myers, all of the Towel Mill.

Additional pictures of June 1 retirees are to appear in the next issue of The Mill Whistle.

Fieldcresters Donate At Draper Bloodmobile

(Continued from Page One)

different donors. There were no repeaters at any of the three visits, due to the short time that had elapsed between collections.

He said he was quite optimistic that the Tri-Cities will continue their support of the Blood Program and that the community will end the year 1964 in good standing.

Bloodmobile visits for the remainder of the year have been scheduled as follows: August 5, Leaksville; September 17, Spray; October 29, Draper; and December 14, Central Area.

Names Omitted

The names of Robert Brooks of the Finishing Mill Napping Department and Lewis Jeffries of the Blanket Mill Weave Room were inadvertently omitted from the list of Fieldcrest blood donors in the last issue of The Mill Whistle. Both Mr. Brooks and Mr. Jeffries were blood donors at "Operation Rescue." The Mill Whistle regrets the omissions.

Buy . . . Sell . . . Swap

LOST: Morehead High School class ring, with red set, initials inside ring. Raymond Thomas, Plant Service Department, Draper, or home telephone MEadow 5-5694.

FOR SALE: Camping trailer, 12-ft., completely equipped. Sleeps 4-5. Will sell for $350. May be seen at 309 Glovenia Street, or call MAIn 3-6102.

WANTED TO BUY: Used 30-inch electric range. Call MAIn 3-7100.

THE MILL WHISTLE