

Congratulations To College Graduates

Large Number Of Fieldcrest Sons And Daughters Get College Or University Degrees

Pictured on the opposite page are summer 1964 college and university graduates who are sons and daughters of Fieldcrest employees. These nine graduates are in addition to six others whose pictures were carried in the preceding issue of The Mill Whistle.

Sara Ann Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Williams, received her A.B. degree in education from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where she majored in mathematics. Her father is safety director at Fieldcrest Mills.

Priscilla Joyce Savage graduated from Appalachian State Teachers College with a B.S. degree. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Savage. Mr. Savage is employed in the Cloth Finishing Department at the Bleachery.

Samuel J. Robertson received his A.B. degree in business from East Carolina College. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Robertson. His father is employed in the Sheet Weave Room and his mother, Fairie Robertson, in the Karastan Setting Department.

Vivian Stone Longenecker received her A.B. degree from Bridgewater College. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Longenecker. Her father is a cutter in the Towel Mill Sewing Department, and her mother, Vera Stone Longenecker, is a weaver at the Towel Mill.

Walter K. Williams graduated from Auburn University with a B.S. degree. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Williams. His father is senior electrician in the Maintenance Department at Muscogee Mills, Columbus, Ga.

Robert Lee Whitt, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Whitt, received his B.S. degree in education with a major in mathematics from Appalachian State Teachers College. His mother, Demore T. Whitt, is employed in the Karastan Setting Department.

Ledon Lingo received his degree in textile technology from the Southern Technical Institute, Marietta, Ga. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lingo. His mother, Ida Lingo, is employed in the Finishing Department at Muscogee Mills.

Willard Alvin Holton, Jr. was graduated from Georgia Institute of Technology with a B.S. degree in textiles. He is the son of W. A. Holton, foreman of the Finishing Department at Muscogee Mills, and Mrs. Holton.

Vivian Ray Blackwell received her A.B. degree from Greensboro College with a major in elementary education. She is the daughter of Mrs. S. Philip Ray and the late Dr. Ray, and is the wife of Ronald L. Blackwell of the Data Processing Department at the General Offices.

ELMER R. AKERS

PAUL M. WALKER

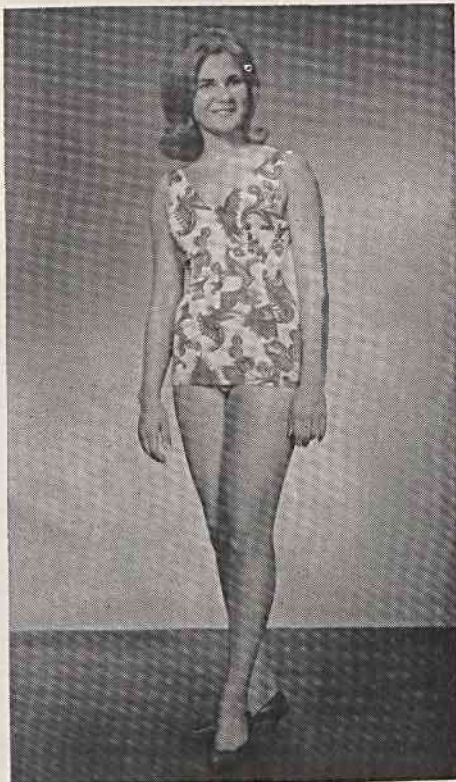

SANFORD L. HOPKINS

Towel Mill Employees Who Retired June 1

Pictured above are three employees of the Towel Mill at Fieldale, Va., who retired under the Fieldcrest Pension Plan effective June 1. Sanford L. Hopkins of the Twisting Department had 21 years of continuous service. Elmer R.

Akers of the Weave Room had 20 years, and Paul M. Walker of the Spinning Department had 17 years. Another June 1 retiree at the Towel Mill was Marvin E. Myers of the Spinning Department, who is not shown.

'Miss Tri-City' To Go To NC Pageant July 7

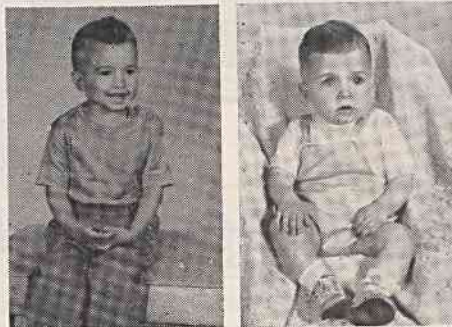

Dorothy Ellen Jones, "Miss Tri-City, 1964" will represent Leaksville-Spray-Draper in the Miss North Carolina beauty pageant to be held in the Memorial Auditorium in Raleigh July 8-11.

Miss Jones, a receptionist-secretary at the Karastan Office, Leaksville, won over six other contestants in the Miss Tri-City contest here May 1. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jones, of Ruffin, but resides at Leaksville.

The state pageant will be the largest in the history of Miss America eliminations anywhere in the United States.

Hill Children

Randy Lynn, 2½ years old, and Kenneth Todd, six months old, are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hill. Mother, Ethel, is employed at the Sheet Finishing Mill in Spray.

Jamie Harris

Jamie Harris, shown in the accompanying picture, was two years old on June 7. His father, Everette Harris, is employed in the Print Shop at Central Warehouse, and grandfather, Robert J. Harris, works in the Central Warehouse Shipping Department. Jamie's mother (Bonnie) is a former employee of the Burling Department at the Karastan Mill.

Get 'Safety Bucks'

Winners of silver dollars in the "Safety Bucks" contest for the month of May at the Bedspread Finishing Mill were: Frances Washburn, Luther F. Smith, Virginia C. Smith, and Helen Thompson, all of Cutting and Sewing.

Participating in the drawing were Jewel Smith, of Packing, and Ruby Lester, of Cutting and Sewing.