Sheeting Mill Men Get Loomfixer Training

As the second stage of a loomfixer training program, five employees of the Sheeting Mill are engaged in overhauling work after completing training in the setting of loom motions and the diagnosis of loom troubles.

The earlier classes were held in the Training Room at the Draper mills and were taught by Euel Clifton, a loomfixer who also is in charge of the overhauling phase of the training program.

Members of the class were Fred Chrisman, of the Weave Room; Robert Clifton, Weave Room; Howard O. Edwards, Inspection Department; Walter Fain and Charles Stophel, both of the Weave Room.

Towel Mill Names Top Weavers, Fixers

Leading loomfixers and weavers at the Towel Mill are listed below for the most recent periods of record.

The "Weavers of the Week" are those with the lowest percentage of seconds with respect to the standards for the various loom groups.

The "top" loomfixers are determined through a combination of low seconds and high loom efficiency on the sections for which they are responsible.
