Girl Scouts Learn Bowling At 'Y'

Girl Scouts from the 24 - member Troop 53 at Draper learned bowling at the Draper Y.M.C.A. as part of the requirements for earning a sports badge. Charles Myers, general secretary of the Draper Y.M.C.A., instructed the Scouts in scorekeeping and fundamentals of the game.

The Scouts studied and practiced bowling for one and a half hours each Tuesday afternoon for six weeks and some of them became suprisingly proficient in duckpin bowling, Mr. Myers said.

Mrs. L. Gordon Clarke is leader of Troop 53 and Mrs. John Hodges is assistant leader.

Has 76th Birthday

J. H. Wade, a Fieldcrest retiree, celebrated his 76th birthday February 6. He was a weaver at the Blanket Mill before his retirement under the Fieldcrest Pension Plan. He was employed by the company continuously for 34 years and said he "enjoyed every one of them." He has been retired for over 11 years.

To Visit Holy Land

religious shrines. From Jerusalem they will drive to Bethlehem to see the Church of the Nativity, the Manger and the Milk Grotto. Crossing into Israel, they will visit Tiberias, Nazareth, Haifa, Caesarea. They will spend the night at Tel Aviv.

Leaving Israel, they will drive to Vienna, Austria, and from Vienna will take a short jet flight to Zurich, Switzerland. They will spend Saturday, Sunday and Monday, August 7, 8 and 9 in Zurich and Lucerne. They will board a jet in Zurich on Tuesday, August 10, for the flight back to New York and departure for their respective home cities.

Mrs. Howard, the widow of W. Frank Howard, retired Blanket Mill employee who died two years ago, has been an inspector at the Blanket Mill since 1938. She said her friends and co-workers in the Cloth Room are "thrilled over my trip" and are anxiously waiting to see the color pictures she plans to make during her tour.
