

G. W. Moore (left) accepts plaque given Sales Office employees for outstanding response in the Greater New York Fund finance campaign. Making the presentation is Anthony M. Liebler, a representative of the Fund.

Mr. Moore extends congratulations to Ira J. Jackson who was presented with an individual Silver Merit Award. Mr. Jackson headed the highly successful solicitation campaign in which a record $958 was contributed.

New York Employees Cited For Contributions

Employees of the Fieldcrest Marketing Division in New York have been awarded the Silver Merit Award by the Greater New York Fund for their outstanding support in the Fund's annual finance campaign.

The award was presented by Anthony M. Liebler, unit director, publicly owned corporations, the Greater New York Fund. It was accepted on behalf of all of the employees by G. William Moore, a vice president of Fieldcrest Mills, Inc., and president of the Fieldcrest Marketing Division.

The Sales Office employees contributed a record $958 in the campaign. In addition, Fieldcrest Mills, Inc., made a donation of $500 to the Greater New York Fund.

Ira J. Jackson, who was in charge of the campaign at the Sales Office, was presented with an individual Silver Merit Award for his leadership in the highly-successful solicitation campaign among the employees.

Greenville Blood Donors

Employees of Karastan Spinning Division, Greenville, again responded to the appeal of the Tidewater Regional Bloodmobile program for blood donors. The program was held at the Greenville Moose Lodge Auditorium March 24 and 25. Eighteen employees gave blood.

These included the chairman of the plant Bloodmobile committee, Al Peel; William E. Jones, Errol Forbes, Levy Owens, William S. Manning, Melvin Sutton, William Tripp, Henry Sugg, Mary Moore Haddock, Berl Mills, Sidney Grant, John C. Bircher, Faye Coltrain, Carol Ward, Carolyn Lee, William Cox, Howard L. Creech and Louis Buck.

Parrish And Sims Receive New Assignments

Edward L. Parrish, industrial relations representative-Spray area, effective April 1 was named personnel manager for the Alexander Sheeting Mill, Forest City, and the Mount Holly Spinning Mill, Mount Holly.

Laurence E. Sims was appointed industrial relations representative-Spray area, replacing Mr. Parrish. Mr. Sims joined Fieldcrest Mills March 1 and has been undergoing a period of training preparatory to assuming his duties at the Spray area mills.

A native of McRae, Ga., Mr. Parrish received his B. S. degree from the Georgia Institute of Technology, Atlanta, in 1963. He joined Fieldcrest Mills in July, 1963, as an industrial relations specialist and in December, 1963, was appointed industrial relations representative at the Spray area mills. He is married to the former Dianne Crafton, of McRae, Ga., and they have a one-year-old son. They have already moved their residence to 248 E. Rt. 1, Forest City, near Chase High School.

Mr. Sims is a native of Little Rock, Arkansas, and received his B. A. degree from Dartmouth College, Hanover, New Hampshire. Prior to joining Fieldcrest he was with the Continental Can Company, first in New York City as a staff assistant to the director of industrial relations in the corrugated box division and later in Atlanta as personnel supervisor and plant buyer.

He married the former Martha Harrison of Westfield, New Jersey. They have a son, four years old, and live at 306 Ashe Street, Leaksville.

EDWARD L. PARRISH

LAURENCE E. SIMS