

Employee's Son Is WCC Star Halback

John Tinker is a freshman at Western Carolina College and is a first-string halfback on the W.C.C. football team. He has a four-year scholarship at Western Carolina and is looking forward to a coaching career.

John is a graduate of Harding High School, Charlotte, where he played both baseball and football. While playing football with the Harding Rams, he was selected to play in the 1964 Shrine Bowl game and was chosen Ram-of-the-Year in 1964. He also was selected for the All-Mecklenberg football team in 1964 and played in the East-West All Star game in Greensboro in 1965.

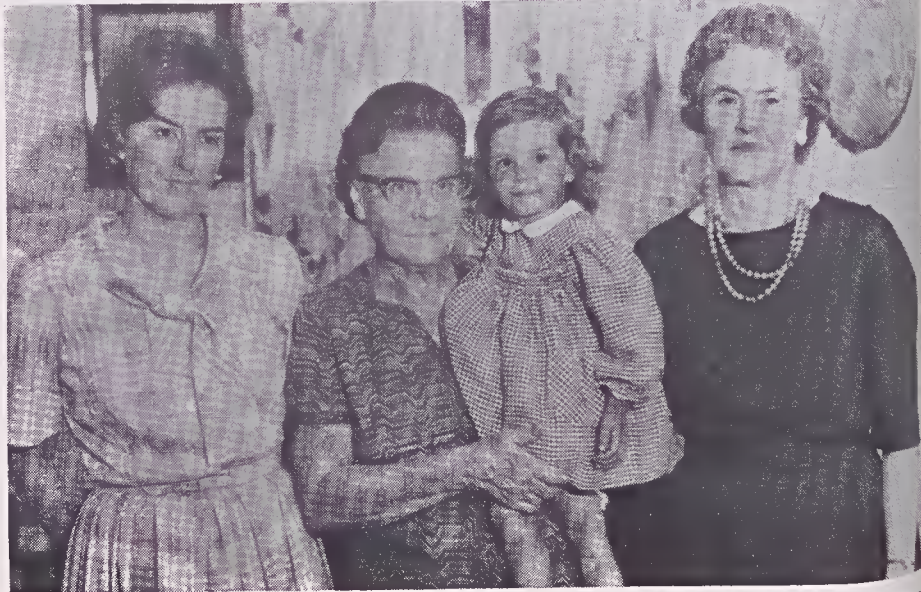

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tinker. His father is a spinning doffer at the Mount Holly Spinning Mill.

Joyner Youngsters

Ronnie Joyner (left), 10 years old, and Lee Joyner, six, are sons of Fay Joyner, a spinner at the Karastan Spinning Division. The youngsters are grandsons of Lena and Harry Joyner of the Twisting Department at the Greenville plant.

Four Generations, Nelson Family

Mrs. W. L. Nelson holds her great-granddaughter, Kimberly Dawn Jackson. At right is Mrs. Nelson's daughter, Mrs. Clifford Rorrer and at left, Mrs. Nelson's granddaughter, Mrs. Richard Jackson, of 1904 Grove St., Greensboro. Mrs. Nelson is a retired employee of the Bedspread Weave Room and Mrs. Rorrer is employed in the Winding Department at the Karastan Rug Mill.

Retired Employee Is Great-Great Aunt

Cindy Lee Coward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael M. Coward of Memphis, Tenn., is shown with her great-great aunt, Mrs. Snoda C. Martin. On Cindy's left is her great-aunt, Mrs. Cecil Crutchfield, the former Elizabeth Lee Coward, of Memphis; and on Cindy's right is her aunt, Miss Jennifer Lee Coward, of Leaksville.

Cindy celebrated her first birthday in August, which is the month of the birthdays of each of the aunts. She is the granddaughter of Cecil M. Coward of the Karastan Mill Weave Room. Her great-great aunt, Mrs. Martin, is a retired Karastan Finishing Department employee.

Birth Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. William Tuck announce the birth of a son, Tracy Lee, born November 2. Mr. Tuck is employed in the Sheeting Mill Spinning Department and a grandmother, Thelma Powell, is employed in the Sheeting Weave Room.

Living In Florida

Burl Bradford, a Towel Mill retiree and Mrs. Bradford are shown as they visited an old-time molasses mill and cane fields near Brooksville, Florida, where the Bradford couple now make their home.

Mr. Bradford was an employee of the Towel Mill Bleachery Department for 35 years before his retirement under the Fieldcrest Pension Plan in 1957.

Sheron Lee Hostetter

Shown in the accompanying picture is Sheron Lee Hostetter, Nov. 3. Sheron Lee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hostetter and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce S. Robinson. Mr. Robinson is the master mechanic at the Mount Holly

Spinning Mill in Mount Holly.

THE MILL WHISTLE