

ROY W. STONEMAN

BOOKER W. DALTON

Two Complete 40-Year Records

Two Towel Mill men have completed 40-year records of continuous service and have received appropriate service awards from the company.

Booker W. Dalton completed 40 years May 1 and Roy W. Stoneman attained 40 years May 6. Each was presented the Fieldcrest 40-year diamond-and-gold service pin and a letter of commendation from Harold W. Whitcomb, chairman of the board, Fieldcrest Mills, Inc.

Mr. Dalton, a native of Patrick County, Va., has never been off of the payroll for any reason since he began work May 1, 1927. He has worked in the Weave Room the entire time and was a weaver before being promoted to loom fixer in 1935. He continued as loom fixer 1935-1964 and since the latter date has been a change fixer.

Mr. Stoneman was born in Grayson

County, Va., and was first employed at the Towel Mill May 6, 1927. He, too, has worked in the Weave Room all of his 40 years with the company. He has been a weaver for the entire period of service and continues to work as a weaver.

Davis Named Foreman Of Karastan Weaving

Harry H. Davis, assistant foreman in the Karastan Weave room, was promoted to foreman of weaving at Karastan effective May 15.

He is a native of Franklin, Georgia, and graduated from Georgia Institute of Technology with a bachelor of textile engineering degree. He first joined the company in January, 1963, in the Research and Development Department at Spray.

Shortly afterwards he went on active duty with the army and served as a first lieutenant in the infantry, stationed in Hawaii. Upon his return from service in February, 1965, he was assigned to the Muscogee Mill in Columbus, Georgia, as a trainee.

He was transferred to the Karastan Mill in October 1965 and worked through the mill, completing various training assignments, before his appointment as assistant foreman of February 1, 1966.
