

Non-Woven Earns Safety Dinner

Pictures on this page show scenes as the employees of the Non-Woven Blanket Mill enjoyed a fried chicken dinner earned by their good safety record. The dinner was served in the mill to all employees on all shifts.

The Non-Woven employees have worked since September 27, 1967, without any lost time due to injury and through November 1968 had accumulated an average of 2,246 safe hours per employee.

Under terms of the safety contest at Fieldcrest, the Company gives a fried chicken or barbecue dinner to all employees of any mill which operates for an average of 2,000 hours per employee without a disabling injury.
